One. Letter to Shareholders

Dear Shareholders,

Thank you for your ongoing support to TRK Corporation. Under the leadership of the Board of Directors and the management team, we continue to withstand and work tirelessly under the severe pandemic, bringing stable growth to the Company's operations.

I. Business Overview in 2022

Since 2021, the Company has completed a capital increase of NT$165 million in cash and introduced strategic partners. After restructuring and integration, the company has streamlined operating expenses, concentrated resources, and focused on the three major aspects respectively known as department store operations, sports and leisure, and construction and development, so as to improve various businesses development, firmly establish the leading brand of experience sports and leisure, and demonstrate overall operating efficiency.

The Group's Current Major Business:

(I) Department store business:

TRK Corporation - Shopping Mall Division

The major business of the "Shopping Mall Division" is responsible for commercial real estate development, planning, investment promotion and operation management; Taroko adopts its long-term experience in the sports and leisure industry to develop and operate hundreds of shopping malls, gaining market advantages with differentiated strategies, and creating the experience shopping mall with the theme of sports and leisure. Currently, the Company operates and manages two shopping malls respectively known as "Taroko Mall" in Taichung and "Taroko Square" in Hsinchu, and will continue to develop new potential properties aiming to become the leading brand of sports and leisure shopping malls in Taiwan. as well as the top developer and operator of commercial real estate.

TAROKO MALL Taichung

Since July 2015, Taroko and Fubon Life Insurance have rented the real estate of Taroko Mall with a total building area of 36,000 pings and a leased floor area of 21,000 pings. Under our team's years of hard work, we have successfully created a differentiated sports and leisure themed experience-oriented shopping mall. At present, the Mall has a complete lineup of catering and retail brands, and there is an abundance of healthy entertainment premises such as Taroko Bowling Alley, Taroko Sports, Indoor Basketball Court, Roller186, Yukids-Island, and VIE SHOW CINEMAS. The overall entertainment business accounts for 24% of revenue, with a stable growth of visitors. Under the impact of the epidemic in 2022, we still reached the best annual performance after Taroko took over the business operation. In the future, we will continue to enhance the brand lineup in the Mall, improve the cozy environment for shopping, and provide more abundant marketing activities; with the convenient transportation and location close to Taichung Railway Station, the Mall will continue to generate better and more stable income and profit momentum to the Company.

Taroko Square (Hsinchu)

The Company rented Taroko Square, a 22 479.338 m2 business premise built by RT-Mart. Since its grand opening in May 2018 and the launch of the new brand "Formosa Stone Spa" in May 2021, the Company is repeatedly covered by several news media and Taiwan's well-known travel platform KKday. The first "TSUTAYA BOOKSTORE" in Hsinchu was opened in April 2022, which is known as the world's most beautiful bookstore, and has successfully attracted visitors from all over Taiwan and become an attraction for urban sightseeing. In 2022, despite the impact of the epidemic, we successfully introduced the popular brands of "JPMED" and "POYA" to the Square, generating more revenue growth. Meanwhile, with the addition of well-known sports retailer "ABC Mart", affordable Japanese restaurant "SUKIYA" and world-renowned clothing brands, etc. in 2023, we are expecting to continue to boost revenue growth.

(II) Sports and Leisure Business:

TRK Corporation - Sports and Parenting Division

The Sports and Parenting Division of TRK Corporation mainly engages in sports, leisure and entertainment. There are 12 Taroko Sports, 4 bowling alleys, 1 kart circuit, and 2 "Roller 186" in Taiwan. , 1 "Formosa Stone Spa", 3 sports supplies counters and 11 branches of Yukids-Island.

By keeping the dream of development of Taiwan's national ballgame in mind, the sports business departments are making efforts to achieve diversified services operating 24/7 in a fashionable, convenient and safe leisure and entertainment environment. We will also cooperate with the local professional baseball teams of the CPBL for the generation of well-known IP, as well as modifying and upgrading hardware equipment to create a new leisure and entertainment experience. Our goal is to introduce sports and leisure into the daily life of the general public, commit to provide the best experience service products, and continue to promote innovation in the industry, establishing differentiated products and services, and becoming the leader in experience entertainment.

The Sports and Parenting Division mainly operates facilities of "Yukids-Island", which is a parent-child amusement park introduced from Japan in 2006. The amusement facilities are designed by a professional Japanese R&D team and have passed a number of safety tests, which meets both Japanese and Taiwanese safety toys standards. Currently there are 11 branches of YU-Kids Island in Taiwan, and there are 8 additional "Yu Kids Art", making it the largest parent-child amusement park franchise in Taiwan. Yukids-Island not only aims at becoming the children's favorite amusement park, but also hopes children growth is linked with the brand's own growth. In the future, we will develop towards digitization of operation and diversification of services to provide a safe, educational and joyful playing environment for children.

The "Innovative Business Department" under the Sports and Parenting Division was established in 2021, and currently runs two "Roller 186" and one "Formosa Stone Spa". We take innovation, trend and differentiated experience as the core concept of business operation. In addition, a skatepark in Taipei Arena and a multi-sport stadium in Nanzi Kaohsiung are also expected to open in 2023.

The first "Roller186" is located on the 6th floor of TAROKO MALL Taichung, which was opened in January 2020 and successfully attracted 160,000 visitors in the first year of operation. It is very popular and has started to trend on the internet and social media. In May 2021, the second skatepark was opened in T.S. Mall. Both branches adopt different design themes, and combine the current Internet KOLs, online communities and the highly social characteristics of roller skating sports to create a brand new leisure and entertainment experience and become the most popular social leisure and entertainment venue for younger generations.
In 2023, two new branches of "Roller186" will open respectively in Taipei Arena and Nanzi Kaohsiung, the two major cities in the north and south of Taiwan, to expand our scope of business operation. Nanzi Kaohsiung Branch is a complex venue for skatepark and baseball and softball, providing a diverse and rich consumer experience.

The first store of "Formosa Stone Spa" is located at B1 of Taroko Square (Hsinchu), and is the only "large-scale Japanese-style stone spa and gym" in Taiwan. The "stone spa" which is popular in Japan and South Korea is a new beauty experience activity in response to the trend of health and wellness. The "Formosa Stone Spa" is designed by a Japanese professional stone spa designer. From the materials to construction, it complies with the Japanese method of high-quality design, which would provide customers with a Japanese-style leisure and health experience. In 2022, nearly 100,000 visitors were attracted to experience the activity, and it was certified by Taiwan's first in-depth tourism platform "KKday", and became one of the top 10 things 'to do' when traveling in Taiwan. With the 24/7 business operation model combined with the launch of a new type of domestic travel itinerary in conjunction with surrounding hotels and restaurants, the revenue contribution will be increased.

According to the analysis of the visitors to Hsinchu Formosa Stone Spa, 55% came from places outside the region of Hsinchu, in particular, the customers from Taipei City and New Taipei City reached 40%. In the future, Formosa Stone Spa will open new branches in metropolitan areas with Taipei City and New Taipei City as the priority.

(III) Construction and Development Business:

TAROKO ARCHITECTURE CO., Ltd.

"TAROKO ARCHITECTURE" participates in government projects of urban renewal mainly in Taipei City and New Taipei City to form a diversified alliance among the industry, and introduces the architectural concept of humanities, leisure, and health, and combines with domestic and foreign partners to develop profitable niche innovative leisure real estate products.

American Village Co., Ltd.

American Village Co., Ltd. is a company reinvested by TAROKO ARCHITECTURE. The 5000-ping "Yangmingshan American Resort" operated by it was rebuilt from the dormitory of the US military stationed in Taiwan in the 1960s, and it is also known in Taiwan as the resort with the most authentic American style. At present, the American Village includes 7 villa-type hotels, Cary's Restaurant, 1956 wedding banquet hall, Attic 80 studio, and Club 63 social/banquet hall.

(IV) Research and Development

The Company operates department store, sports and leisure business, hence there is no research and development department, and it is not applicable to the research and development of general manufacturing industries.

II. Summary of Business Plan of 2023

The Company has always adhered to the highest management principles of "customer first, teamwork, innovation and challenge, and sustainable operation". Facing the rapidly changing environment, the gap between digital shopping and physical shopping is getting closer. The market is becoming more diversified, digitalized, and smarter. In addition to providing customers with a comfortable environment, physical channels need to strive to create innovative and different shopping malls to offer more consumer entertainment choices. We have been engaging in the parenting sports and leisure business for more than 20 years, and have always adhered to the above-mentioned core concept, and will continue to have it as our operating standard in the future. Since 2019, we have actively rectified our business units, carried out organizational reforms, and at the same time strengthened the financial structure by focusing on experience shopping malls and sports and leisure businesses. It is expected that in 2023, the development of various businesses will be improved, and the leading brand of sports and leisure experience business will be firmly established, and the overall operating efficiency will be achieved.

III. Future Corporate Development Strategy

After reorganization and integration, the Company has concentrated its resources on the three major aspects respectively known as shopping mall operation, sports and leisure, and construction and development. In response to the industrial features of the business we operate and changes in the overall market, and in addition to sticking to improvement of service quality and development and operation of the shopping mall business, the Company will continue to enhance the competitiveness of its sports and leisure business, for example, in 2020, a Taroko Sports was established in Chiayi City for the first time. The development of new experiences is also being conducted. For example, on the 6th floor of TAROKO MALL Taichung, Roller 186 which is a skatepark that was a very popular entertainment and leisure facility in Taiwan from 1970s and 80s, has been established. The innovative large-scale Japanese-style stone spa facility "Formosa Stone Spa" designed by Japanese designers was introduced from Japan. The truly original Japanese-style stone spa and relaxation space is an entirely new leisure experience.

Taroko will focus on the operation of experience-oriented shopping malls and the core sports and leisure business, give play to creativity and continue to innovate, improve future business development, and create more stable equity value for all shareholders.

IV. Impact from the external competition, regulatory and overall business environment

(I) The impact of the external competition

In response to the industrial characteristics of the business and the changes in the overall market, the Company and its subsidiaries will not only stick to quality improvement and strive to develop and operate the original sports and leisure industry that has been invested in for years, but will also actively engage in real estate development and experience sports and leisure to seek profit opportunities in the industry.

TAROKO MALL Taichung is located at the key location that can conveniently access Taiwan Railway, long-distance personnel transportation and other transportation hubs. Therefore, there are many visitors on weekdays and holidays, and Mall can cover a large scope of potential consumers, which will help attract long-distance business travelers or tourists. However, it is the general trend that online shopping will impact physical stores since consumers can select the products they want without personally going out from their homes. In addition, the successive opening of outlets has intensified the market competition among the department stores and retail industry. Therefore, diversifying operations, strengthening market segmentation and brand image, and providing products in line with market positioning will be the goal of the Company's ongoing efforts.

(II) Impact from regulatory environment

The Company keeps abreast of changes in important domestic and foreign policies and regulations, and immediately consults accounting firms, lawyers and other professionals to provide relevant information as a reference for decision-making at the management level, so as to respond to impact from changes in important policies and laws at home and abroad, and timely adjust the Company's operating strategies.

(III) Impact from the overall business environment

Looking back on the economic performance of 2022, with the increase of vaccination coverage in major countries, the recovery of the global economy is significant. Overall, Taiwan's economy expanded steadily throughout the year of 2022. In 2023, the global economy is expected to maintain the pace of recovery, and the domestic economic growth rate is projected to be 2.43%. The stabilization of the epidemic will help boosting domestic demands, which is expected to boost consumption. The Company will properly utilize its management experience accumulated during recent years and actively improve its digital application capabilities to provide customers with good experience, fully integrate department stores and sports and leisure, increase the added value of consumers, and work harder to achieve revenue goals.

We sincerely wish each and all shareholders the healthy life and good fortune!

Note 3: Hsu Chun-Chi, the representative of the corporate director, has been changed to Li Yi-Chuan since Jun. 1, 2022.

II. Independence of the Board of Directors:

a. Board structure: The Company has established a director election system. The election process for all directors is open and fair. According to the provisions of the “Articles of Incorporation”, “Regulations Governing the Election of Directors and Independent Directors”, “Corporate Governance Best-Practice Principles”, “Regulations Governing Appointment of Independent Directors and Compliance Matters for Public Companies” and “Article 14-2 of the Securities and Exchange Law” of the Company, the composition of the current Board of Directors accounts for 4 independent directors (44.44%) and 5 non-independent directors (55.55%).

b. The Board of Directors is independent: the Board of Directors of the company guides the company's strategy, supervises the management level, and is responsible to the Company and shareholders. In the various operations and arrangements of the corporate governance system, the Board of Directors follows the laws, the Company's Articles of Incorporation, or the resolutions of the shareholders' meeting to exercise powers. The Company's Board of Directors emphasizes the functions of independent operation and transparency. Directors and independent directors are independent individuals and independently exercise their powers and duties. The four independent directors also follow the relevant laws and regulations, cooperate with the powers of the Audit Committee, review the management and control of the company's existing or potential risks, etc., so as to effectively supervise the effective implementation of the Company's internal control, the selection (dismissal) of certified public accountants, and independence and proper preparation of financial statements. In addition, according to the Company's "Regulations Governing the Election of Directors and Independent Directors", the election of directors and independent directors adopts a cumulative voting system and a candidate nomination system to encourage shareholders to participate. Shareholders holding more than a certain number of shares may submit a list of candidates. The review of the qualifications of candidates and the confirmation of violations of the items listed in Article 30 of the Company Act, and the relevant acceptance operations are carried out and announced in accordance with the law to protect the rights and interests of shareholders, so as to avoid monopoly or excessive nomination to maintain the independence.

c. The Company has established a performance evaluation system for the Board of Directors, and conducts an internal self-evaluation of the Board of Directors and self-evaluation of directors once a year;

The Board performance evaluation includes five aspects:

1. Participation in the operation of the company
2. The quality of the Board of Directors' decision making
3. Composition and structure of the Board of Directors
4. Election and continuing education of the directors; and
5. Internal control

The self-assessment of directors includes six aspects

1. Alignment of the goals and mission of the company
2. Awareness of the duties of a director
3. Participation in the operation of the company
4. Management of internal relationship and communication
5. The director's professionalism and continuing education; and
6. Internal control

The above-mentioned relevant self-assessment results are disclosed in the Company's annual report and official website after being submitted to the Board of Directors

In addition, in order to let the investing public fully understand the operation of the Company's Board of Directors, relevant information has also been disclosed in the company's annual report, official site or MOPS of TWSE.

The Company's Chairman is Ms. Lin Man-Li and the President is Mr. Hsieh Kuo Tong. For the purpose of improving operational efficiency and decision-making execution ability, the Chairman engages in adequate communication with the directors to ensure the operation status of the Company.

The President implements the business plan and guidelines for corporate governance, in order to strengthen the independence of the Board of Directors. Moreover, the Company plans to increase the number of independent directors to enhance the functions of the Board of Directors and strengthen the function of supervision.

At present, the Company has adopted the following specific measures:

1. The Company purchases directors and supervisors liability insurance and entrusts a large firm to audit the Company's financial reports to ensure the check and balance between power and authority, and prevent any specific person from monopolizing power and abusing it.

2. Every year, directors are arranged to attend professional director courses offered by external professional institutions to enhance the operational efficiency of the Board of Directors.

3. Independent directors can fully discuss and make suggestions in the functional committees for the reference of the Board of Directors to implement corporate governance.

Note 2: Chief Finance and Accounting Officer Chang Chun-Cheng resigned on January 27, 2022. Chen Pei-Ting serves as the Chief Accounting Officer.

Note 3: Chief Finance and Accounting Officer Chang Chun-Cheng resigned on January 27, 2022. Lin Li-Ling serves as the Head of Finance.

The director's professionalism and continuing education; and 6. Internal control

3. Succession planning and operation of Board members

(1) The Company adopts a candidate nomination system for election of directors in accordance with the "Articles of Incorporation". The "Corporate Governance Best-Practice Principles" and "Procedures for Election of Directors" set out that the composition of the Board of Directors should take diversity into consideration. The Company has established a diversified policy based on its current state and development needs, including but not limited to basic requirements and values, and professional knowledge and skills.

(2) The structure of the Company's Board of Directors shall be determined after considering the needs of practical operations and taking into consideration the Company's business scale and the shareholdings of major shareholders.

(3) For the succession planning of directors, the Company has established the database of director candidates according to the following criteria:

1. Integrity, responsibility, innovation and decision-making power, in line with the Company's core values, with professional knowledge and skills helpful to the Company's operation and management.
2. Possess experience in the industry relevant to the Company's business.
3. It is expected that the addition of this member will continuously provide the Company with an effective, coordinated and diversified board that meets the needs of the Company.
4. The expertise of the Board of Directors as a whole should include corporate strategy and management, accounting and taxation, finance, and law.
5. The Company establishes the selection process of director candidates in accordance with the qualifications and relevant regulations to ensure that suitable new directors can be effectively identified and elected when there is a vacancy in the number of directors or a plan to increase the number of directors.

(4) The Company has also adopted its "Evaluation of the Performance of the Board of Directors". The performance evaluation measures the following aspects: control over the Company's goals and tasks, recognition of responsibilities, participation in operations, internal relationship management and communication, professional functions and further education, and internal control, ensuring that the Board of Directors is functioning effectively, and to evaluate the performance of the directors as a reference for the selection of directors in the future.

4. Succession planning and operation of key management personnel

(1) Employees at the Assistant Vice President level (and above) are the key management personnel and are responsible for the management of the organization. The values and business philosophy of the key management personnel shall be in line with the Company's business philosophy, in addition to possessing the necessary professional skills and experience.

(2) In order to develop key management personnel and their representatives, the Company not only offers professional competency and corporate governance-related courses, but also arranges practical trainings such as attending board meetings and participating in regular internal key management meetings, with on-the-job training supported by project task management. The Company also arranges for managers to share and exchange ideas about management practices.

(3) The Company conducts employee performance appraisals on a yearly basis. Through daily observation and performance evaluation, employees are able to understand areas of improvement, personal development needs, and the Company's expectations. The results of the appraisals can be used as a reference for future succession planning.

(II) Audit Committee

The Company established the Audit Committee on June 1, 2022 in order to improve the supervisory responsibility and the management of the Board. The Audit Committee is composed of all Independent Directors, at least one of whom should have accounting or financial expertise. (X) The following information shall be disclosed regarding the implementation of internal control policies:

1. Statement of the Internal Control System

TRK Corporation

Statement of the Internal Control System

Date: March 23, 2023

The Company's internal control system for 2022 as per the results of our self-assessment is hereby declared as follows:

I. The Company is clearly aware that the establishment, implementation, and maintenance of an internal control system are the responsibility of the Company's Board of Directors and managers, and the Company has established such a system. It aims to provide reasonable assurance for the achievement of the objectives, namely the effectiveness and efficiency of operations (including profitability, performance, and asset security protection), the reliability, timeliness, and transparency of financial reporting, and compliance with applicable laws and regulations.

II. Some limitations are inherent in all internal control systems. No matter how perfect the design is, an effective internal control system can only provide a reasonable assurance regarding the achievement of the above three intended objectives; moreover, due to changes in the environment and circumstances, the effectiveness of the internal control system may change accordingly. However, the Company's internal control system is equipped with a self-monitoring mechanism. Once a defect is identified, the Company will take action to rectify it.

III. The Company judges whether the design and implementation of the internal control system is effective based on the criteria for judging the effectiveness of the internal control system set out in the Regulations Governing Establishment of Internal Control Systems by Public Companies (hereinafter referred to as the "Regulations"). Said criteria under the Regulations are divided into five constituent elements as per the management and control process: 1. control environment, 2. risk assessment, 3. control activities, 4. information and communication, and 5. monitoring activities. Each constituent element includes several items. For said items, please refer to the Regulations.

IV. The Company has adopted the aforesaid judgment criteria for the internal control system to determine whether the design and implementation of the internal control system are effective.

V. Based on the results of the assessment in the preceding paragraph, the Company is of the opinion that, as of December 31, 2022, the internal control system (including the supervision and management of its subsidiaries), including the understanding the effectiveness of operations and the extent to which efficiency targets are achieved, reliable, timely, and transparent reporting, and compliance with applicable rules and applicable laws and regulations, is effective and can reasonably assure the achievement of the foregoing objectives.

VI. This statement will form the main content of the Company's annual report and prospectus and will be made public. If the disclosed content above is false or there is material information concealed deliberately or otherwise, the Company will be legally liable pursuant to Articles 20, 32, 171, and 174 of the Securities and Exchange Act.

VII. This statement has been approved by the Company's meeting of the Board of Directors held on March 23, 2023, attended by nine directors (including two proxies). The statement is hereby declared.

TRK Corporation

Chairman: Lin, Man-Li

President: Hsieh, Kuo-Tong

(VI) Dividend policy and implementation

1. The dividend policy stipulated in the Articles of Incorporation

The Company's dividends are distributed in accordance with the earnings of the current year based on the principle of stabilizing dividends and budget plan to measure the capital requirements for future years. After the necessary funds have been financed from retained earnings, the remaining earnings are then distributed in the form of cash dividends The percentage of cash dividends shall not be less than 2% of the total dividends. The steps are as follows:

I. Determine the optimal capital budget.

II. Determine the financing needed to meet the capital budget.

III. Determine how much the financing needs to be financed from the retained earnings (the remaining amount can be paid from capital increase in cash or in the form of corporate bonds).

IV. The remaining earnings shall be distributed to the shareholders in the form of cash dividends.

2. Distribution of dividends proposed in the shareholders' meeting: There are no earnings available for distribution this year.

3. Expected material changes in dividend policy: None.

(VII) The influence of the stock dividend proposed at the shareholders' meeting on the Company's operating performance and earnings per share:

Not applicable, as the Company's 2022 financial forecast does not need to be made public as of the date of the shareholders' meeting.

(VIII) Employee remuneration and directors' and supervisors' remuneration

1. The percentage of the profit for or scope of employee remuneration and directors' remuneration as stated in the Company's Articles of Incorporation:

According to Article 32 of the Company's Articles of Incorporation, if the Company has a profit at the end of the year, it shall contribute up to 0.5%~1% of the profit as remuneration to employees and 2% of the profit as remuneration to directors and supervisors, provided the amount for covering losses must be first allocated. Employee remuneration and directors' and supervisors' remuneration distribution proposals shall be reported to the shareholders' meeting.

If the Company has earnings at the end of the year, except for the payment of tax and making up losses of previous years, 10% of the legal reserve shall be set aside in advance. However, when the legal reserve has reached the Company's paid-in capital, no legal reserve shall be set aside. The remaining earnings may be set aside or reversed to special reserve as required by business needs or laws and regulations. For any remaining earnings, the Board of Directors shall prepare a proposal for distribution and submit it to the shareholders for resolution.

2. Basis for estimation of employee remuneration and directors' and supervisors' remuneration in this period, basis for the calculation of the number of shares for stock dividends to employees, and accounting treatment if the amount paid out is different from the estimated amount: None.

3. Distribution of remuneration approved by the meeting of the Board of Directors: There are no earnings available for distribution this year.

(1) Amount of employee remuneration and directors' and supervisors' remuneration distributed in cash or stock. Where there is a difference with the estimated amount for the year, in which the expenses are recognized, the amount of difference, reason, and accounting treatment shall be disclosed: None, as no distribution or estimation (recognized) was made.

(2) The amount of employee remuneration in stock and the amount as a percentage of the sum of net income after tax as in the parent company only financial statements or individual financial report for this period and the total employee dividends for this period: The Company did not distribute employee remuneration.

4. Where there is a difference between the employee remuneration and directors' and supervisors' remuneration paid out and the estimated amounts for the prior year (including the number of shares distributed, amount, and stock price), the amount of the difference, reason, and accounting treatment shall also be specified: None.

Description:

Five. Overview of Operations

I. Information on business

(I) Business scope

1. Main business activities of the Company and its subsidiaries

A. Department stores

B. Operation and management of commercial real estate in department stores that combine sports, entertainment and leisure venues.

C. Develop niche innovative leisure real estate products and functional housing.

D. Operation and management of sports leisure and parent-child amusement park.

E. Operation and management of tourist hotels and catering businesses.

2. Proportion to businesses

The revenue from department stores, sports and leisure services, and real estate development has been the main source of revenue since 2016. The operating percentage for the most recent two years is as follows:

Business items	2022	2021
	Percentage (%)	Percentage (%)
Department store	37.2	48.96
Sports and leisure	63.5	51.04
Real estate development	-	-
Total	100.00	100.00

3. Current product line

A.Business in department stores

The Company's Shopping Mall Division is mainly engaged in the operation of department stores. Currently, the Company owns two shopping centers - TAROKO MALL Taichung and Hsinchu Taroko Square.

B.Business in sports and leisure

As of the end of March 2023, the Sports and Parenting Division of the Company has 12 Taroko Sports, 4 bowling alleys, 1 karting field, and branches of 11 Yukids-Islands, and will continue to engage in the sports industries to achieve innovation, search for differentiated products and services, and become the leader in differentiated experience projects.

Hsinchu Taroko Square B1 has introduced a Japanese bedrock bath that combines the living room concept with a brand-new stress-relieving and spacious resting space.

The Company leased eight buildings of US military quarters in Yangmingshan from the Bank of Taiwan through the investee (with 60% shareholding) of Taroko Architecture Co., Ltd., to develop and operate American Village Co., Ltd., which provides consumers with an American-style leisure resort and outdoor American-style wedding venues.

C.Real Estate Development Activities

Taroko Architecture Co., Ltd., wholly owned by the Company, has invested resources for the reconstruction of the old and dangerous buildings, urban renewal projects, and land development projects. By doing this, we hope to inject a new source of profit in addition to the department store and sports and leisure industries.

4. New products (services) planned to be developed:

A.Business in department stores: The Company continues to seek development projects with other industries in Taiwan.

B.Business in sports and leisure:

(A)To develop new experiential business formats, we have built a most fashionable leisure venue - classic skatepark, "Roller186", into Taroko Mall Taichung and Taiwan Spinning (T.S.) Mall.

(B)In 2023, we are planning to add another skatepark in Taipei Arena and a multi-sport stadium in Kaohsiung in 2023.

C.Hsinchu Taroko Square B1 has introduced a Japanese bedrock bath that combines the living room concept with a brand-new stress-relieving and spacious resting space.

D.Taroko Sports became open 24 hours a day to increase revenue and improve operating efficiency.

(II) Overview of the industry

1. Current status and development of the industry

According to the 2021 Statistical Yearbook of Transportation, the COVID-19 pandemic continued to affect the global tourism industry and tourism activities worldwide. There were 140,479 visitors to Taiwan in 2021, an 89.8% decrease from 2020. Due to the impact of the pandemic, the market structure, spending status, and travel trends of visitors to Taiwan are vastly different from those in previous years.

In line with the Tourism Bureau's 2022 tourism policy: the Bureau will implement the concepts of "Tourism as a Nation", "Mainstreaming Tourism," and "Tourism Circle", while promoting the "Tourism 2025 - Taiwan Tourism 2025 Program" to implement 24 plans through five major strategies, including "creating attractive spots, preparing thematic tourism, optimizing the industrial environment, promoting digital experiences, and expanding tourism sources", dedicated to shaping Taiwan into an important tourism destination in Asia.

In response to the impact of COVID-19 on the tourism industry, the Company has given top priority to "stabilizing the tourism industry and promoting post-pandemic transformation of the industry", continuously grasped the global pandemic development and market demand, reviewed on a rolling basis. We also timely adjusted the deployment and marketing strategy of domestic tours and international markets, while assisting the tourism industry to overcome difficulties and stabilize the structure of tourism development.

In the long run, there are still business opportunities for the development of the tourism, sports and leisure industry. However, the tourism industry has been hit hard due to the rapid spread of COVID-19 worldwide. If the outbreak does not subside, the impact on the economy in the future is difficult to predict. The Company will continue to seek stable development in Taiwan and mainland China by leveraging on the accumulated operating experience and resources in sports and leisure and family entertainment. We also plan to add new types of equipment and services to satisfy the needs of consumers.

2. The relations between the up-, mid-, and downstream industries

Upstream	Midstream	Downstream
Commodity Suppliers Equipment suppliers and advertising companies	Shopping mall operators that provide leisure entertainment venues	The general public For example: companies, firms, individuals

(1)Various development trends of products

For the recreation and sports business, the Company will adhere to the "light assets and strong management" development trend in the future. In recent years, the diversity of consumer entertainment choices has been growing rapidly. With its unique business type, service talent, and brand image, the Company has been developing software and updating hardware to meet the novelty of consumer experience in order to continue to grow in the market.

(2)Competition

In terms of the operation of each business unit, overall, due to the impact of inflation and rising consumer prices, various costs have increased year by year. Despite the multiple competitive environment, the Company's management and all employees are to service and provide customers with a relaxed and pleasant consumer experience, bringing the Company a more stable profit.

(III)Technology and R&D

The Company does not have a dedicated R&D department, and the President's Office and the Development Management Division are responsible for the development and guidance of domestic and foreign reinvestment, project promotion, business management analysis and other related operational planning. The Sports and Parenting Division in 2020 established a new business department, whose goal is to actively develop and plan new products for sports, entertainment, leisure, and experience, and to try out and explore new business, marketing, and management models, and to integrate mature products and models into modularization to allow the Company to easily copy, expand quickly, and accelerate the creation of new leisure and entertainment industries and new consumer experiences, so as to create a fully win-win-win for the Company, partners, and consumers, as well as creating higher consumer value.

Other business directions are as follows:

(1)Department store:

Given the changes in consumption habits and culture, the food and beverage industry has become the focus of the development of commercial real estate projects and shopping malls. Famous restaurants are introduced to increase the popularity of the shopping mall, becoming the main focus for large shopping malls and shopping centers. Taroko Group has gathered talented people with excellent experience in shopping centers, and has adopted the operation model of "combination of sports venues and shopping malls" and "experiential marketing". Being different from retail chains, we believe that Taroko shopping malls will create crowds and topics, delivering results and bright future.

(2)Sports and leisure:

Taroko Group spans multiple industries, such as Taroko Square, Taroko Sports, Taroko Sports, Karting, Yukids-Island, Bowling, ROLLER186, and Formosa Stone Spa. With more than ten years of accumulated experience, we are able to achieve a comprehensive effect of technology transfer and integrated marketing.

(3)Real Estate Development:

A.Seek potential business opportunities in land development.

B.Product research and planning in the housing market.

C.Development in old and dangerous houses and urban renewal projects.

(IV)Long-term and short-term business development plans

(1)Short-term plan:

A.Real Estate Development:

The Group actively participates in the development of urban development projects and new and old building reconstruction projects, hoping to maximize the interests of the shareholders.

B.Market Development Department:

The shopping mall business is committed to the steady growth. With several years of dedicated management by the team, we have presented better service quality, stronger brand portfolio, more differentiated entertainment pattern, richer variety of activities and more comfortable shopping environment. With the convenient location and crowds, Taichung Railway Station will continue to provide the Company with better and more stable profit and revenue momentum The experience economy model has been regarded as an inspiration and opportunity for the transformation of brick-and-mortar stores. The Group has been cultivating in the sports, leisure and entertainment industries for many years and will proactively cooperate with different types of business operators, such as institutional investors, developers, entertainment and retail operators, to actively expand more locations and provide more innovative and diversified leisure and lifestyle business opportunities.

C.Tourism, leisure and entertainment:

The Group continues to strengthen its own competitiveness via "Roller 186" and "Formosa Stone Spa". We take innovation, trend and differentiated experience as the core concept of business operation. Currently, we operate 2 branches of "Roller 186" and one "Formosa Stone Spa". In addition, a skatepark in Taipei Arena and a multi-sport stadium in Nanzi Kaohsiung are expected to open this year (2023).

Taroko will move towards the direction of “department store operations, sports and leisure, and construction and development” and focus on the operation of experience-oriented shopping malls and the core sports and leisure business, give play to creativity, improve future business development, and create more stable equity value for all shareholders.

(2)Medium-term plan:

Taichung Taroko Mall and Hsinchu Taroko Square have entered the stable operation stage. We expect that the revenue and profit will be shown gradually, establishing the professional strength of brand management in the commercial real estate field. The Group focuses on townships and urban areas with different population scales and structures to expand Taroko-regional and community shopping centers in order to achieve economies of scale for the chain brands and their operations, creating stable cash flow income, accomplishing stable revenue and profitability goals.

(3)Medium-term plan:

With the changes in consumer trends and people’s styles due to the pandemic, we are keen on seeking and developing new business models and businesses in order to diversify risks With the original sports and entertainment brand niche, we have set up the Digital Application Office to lead the internal colleagues to understand the basic patterns of digital development in the business field. We aim to cultivate the Internet mindset and accelerate the pace of digital transformation with hardware digitization, ensuring the Company's sustainability.

II. Overview of the market and production and sales

(I) Market analysis

(1)Locations where products (services) are primarily sold (provided)

TRK Corporation began its business as a textile company. With more than ten years of experience in the sports and leisure industry in various parts of Taiwan, we have actively transformed the Company into the development and management of commercial real estate.

(2)Market share

In response to the constant capital investment in corporate transformation and the rectification of the Group's business units since 2019, the merger of BLD Oriental Taiwan Co., Ltd., a subsidiary of Taroko Group by Taroko Shopping Center Corporation was completed. From November 2019, TRK Corporation has absorbed Taroko Square. Through organizational changes, the Group has integrated the its resources and owns brands such as Taroko Square, Taroko Sports, Karting, Yukids-Island, and Bowling. With the reduction of operating costs, the Group is expected to significantly increase its market share in the future, strengthening its competitiveness, expanding its target customer base, and leveraging the combined effect.

(3)Supply and demand and growth potential of the market in the future

TWSE held the "2022 Themed Industry Seminar and Leisure Sports Industry Law Seminar". The added value formed by the sports and leisure industry itself and with other industries are extremely high with full development potential, making it a new industry force to watch out for in the future. With the popularity and prevalence of sports around the world, emerging sports, physical fitness, and leisure activities have received wide attention in recent years. In addition to the professional sports upsurge in Europe and the United States and the mass media, the sports and leisure industry has become an emerging and popular industry in the 21st century.

Taroko specializes in the integration of shopping malls, and continues to innovate in the sports and leisure industry to get hold of differentiated products and services, becoming the leader of differentiated experiential items.

4. The competitive niche, favorable and unfavorable factors for future development and countermeasures

A.Competitive niche:

In response to the industrial characteristics of the business and the changes in the overall market, the Company and its subsidiaries will not only stick to quality improvement and strive to develop and operate the original sports and leisure industry that has been invested in for years, but will also actively engage in real estate development and experience sports and leisure to seek profit opportunities in the industry.

In the long term, we hope to continue to seek stable development by leveraging on the accumulated operating experience and resources in sports and leisure and family entertainment. We also plan to add new types of equipment and services to satisfy the needs of consumers.

B.Favorable factors:

(A)For the operation and development of shopping malls, the main focus of development is "experiential shopping centers". By appropriately reducing the proportion of retail, increasing the proportion of experiential but still differentiated food and beverage and entertainment, while at the same time planning more activity space, adding elements of art, culture, curation and even sports experience, we will increase consumers' adhesion to Taroko.

(B)With the experience and resources accumulated over the years in Taiwan's sports and leisure industry, we have introduced mature technology from Japan, Europe and the United States, and integrated sports and entertainment theme elements with shopping mall operations, making Taroko a characteristic sports experiential shopping center. We have created a brand culture and corporate image with our competitive advantages and differentiated market positioning to enter the domestic and overseas markets.

C.Unfavorable factors:

(A)Due to high inflation in the domestic economy, the annual CPI growth in January 2022 increased by 3.04%, and the core CPI annual increased by 2.98%. The COVID-19 pandemic has had different impacts on various industries, and its impact remains observed.

(B)The number of tourists from China has dropped sharply due to the issue of Chinese tourists entering Taiwan due to COVID-19.

(C)Outlets, large department stores and shopping malls continued to compete with each other.

D.Response strategies:

With the store expansion strategy of " department store operation, sports and leisure, construction and development ", the Company has timely introduced capital investment from institutional investors, invested in development companies, and introduced relevant strategic development partners to reduce the burden of initial investment cost. With excellent management achievements and experience, we have established a firm brand positioning and chain development strategies. Moreover, we plan the most suitable anchor tenants and business composition on a case-by-case basis while conducting the optimal space planning for buildings, and attracts investment to develop into a sports and entertainment experiential shopping center. In terms of real estate development, the Company is also planning for differentiated products, hoping that the entire Group's personnel, marketing, investment attraction, property management and store construction can produce the synergy of chain operation. By taking advantage of favorable factors such as overall economic scale and chain negotiation dominance, we can effectively reduce operating expenses and generate revenue to maximize the Company's revenue and lay the foundation for the sustainable growth of the brand.

All shopping malls continue to launch longstanding activities to give back to the consumers while integrating local cultivation into daily life by providing shopping, sports and leisure venues that are closer to the need of the public.

(II) Important functions and production processes of main products

(1)Department store:

Development of shopping malls throughout Taiwan. Currently, the Company owns two shopping centers - TAROKO MALL Taichung and Hsinchu Taroko Square.

(2)Sports and leisure:

A.For the sports and leisure industry, we own Taroko Sports, Taroko Karting, Yukids, Taroko Bowling, Roller 186 and Formosa Stone Spa.

B.Based on the transformation of the Company's business model, we plan to operate in the tourism service industry, and uphold the corporate culture of "integrity" and the belief of "customer first". The Company's innovative business model and sports and entertainment brand niches, and recommending new customers are the core ideas of the Company .

(3)Real Estate Development:

We plan and build different types of products based on the different needs of customers at different levels and in different regions.

(III) Supply of main raw materials: N/A. (The Company is in the department store sector, not in the general manufacturing industry).

VI. Cyber security management

(I) Describe cyber security risk management framework, policy, specific management plans, and resources put in cyber security management.

1. Cyber security risk management framework

The Company's Information Department is responsible for the information security of the Company, and has established a Chief Information Officer and professional information engineers to formulate the Company's information security policy, plan information security measures, and execute related information security operations.

The Audit Office of the Company is the audit unit for information security monitoring. If any deficiencies are discovered during the audit, the Audit Office shall immediately request the audited unit to propose relevant improvement plans and report the results to the Board of Directors. The result of improvement is tracked regularly to reduce internal information security risks.

The CPAs conducts information operation inspections each year. If deficiencies are found, the corrective actions are proposed, with the improvement results tracked.
Given the importance of information security, the responsible unit reports the Company's information security governance and implementation to the Board of Directors on a regular basis every year.

2. Cyber security policy and management plan

In order to strengthen cyber security management, ensure the confidentiality, integrity and availability of information, while preventing it from internal and external intentional or accidental threats, the Company's information security facilities and management methods are divided into six major areas as follows:

(1) Security management of computer equipment

1. The Company's application servers and other equipment are installed in the dedicated server room. The access to the server room is by inductive card swipe, and the access records are kept for reference.
2. The server room is equipped with independent air conditioning to maintain the operation of computer equipment under an appropriate temperature environment, and equipped with chemical type fire extinguishers for fires caused by general or electrical appliances.
3. The main engine of the server room is equipped with UPS and stabilized voltage equipment, and is connected to the generator power supply system provided by the Company’s own generator power supply system in the building. By doing so, we are able to prevent the system from crashing due to an accidental power outage by TPC, or to ensure that the operation of computer applications will not be interrupted during a temporary power outage.

(2) Network security management

1. Strengthen network control. The entrance to the external network is equipped with an enterprise-class firewall to prevent illegal invasion by hackers.
2. Data encryption for the site-to-site connection is used between the server rooms in Taichung and Hsinchu and the Keelung office to prevent data transmission process suffered from illegal capture.
3. Colleagues who access the ERP system through the Company's intranet remotely must apply for a VPN account and all usage records are available for audit.

(3) Virus protection and management

1. Protective software is installed in the server and in the terminal computers of employees. The virus codes are updated automatically to ensure that the latest type of viruses are blocked. At the same time the installation of potentially threatening system executable files can be detected and prevented.
2. The anti-virus system immediately isolates or deletes detected or intercepted viruses, and takes the initiative to issue risk reports on computers that are infected or at risk, so that management can take responsive actions.

(4) System access control.

1. The use of various application systems by colleagues goes through the system permission application process defined internally by the Company and after being approved by the responsible supervisor and the information unit creates a system account. The system account shall be established by the information unit after the approval of the authority in charge.
2. Account passwords shall be approved only if they contain a mixture of letters, numbers, and special symbols with an appropriate strength, the number of characters.
3. When a colleague is resigning (off duty), he or she must contact the information unit to delete the account number in each system.

(5) Ensure the stable operation of the system.

1. System backup: A backup system shall be installed and a regular backup mechanism shall be adopted. In addition to uploading one copy of the system and database to the backup server in the server room, the backup server in the Computer Server Room2 and the backup server in the Hsinchu server room each store another copy to ensure absolute security.
2. Disaster recovery drill: Each system is rehearsed once a year. After selecting the recovery date and reference point, the backup media will restore the data to the mainframe. The user will then confirm the accuracy of the restored data in writing to ensure the correctness and effectiveness of the backup media. .
3. The Company rents two data lines from the telecommunication company and used the bandwidth management equipment to backup each other in parallel to ensure uninterrupted network communication.

(6) Information security advocacy, education and training
1. Regular promotion. Request employees to change system passwords periodically to maintain account security.
2. Advocacy by lecture. Conduct information security-related training to internal colleagues from time to time.
3. Invest resources in security management of information and communications

3. To implement the six major information security policies, the Company has invested in the following resources:
(1) Network hardware equipment such as firewalls, mail anti-virus, and network managed centralized lines.
(2) Software systems such as backup management software and VPN authentication.
(3) Telecommunications services such as multiple lines, server backup services, intrusion prevention services, etc.
(4) Manpower invested such as: daily system status inspection, weekly regular backup and execution of off-site storage of backup media, information security training at least twice a year, annual system disaster recovery execution drill, annual internal audit of information circulation , CPA audit, etc.
(5) Information security manpower: An information security supervisor and information security personnel have been set up to be responsible for information security framework design, information security maintenance, operation and monitoring, information security incident response and investigation, and information security policy review and revision. Only one report is required. The information security supervisor reports to the Board of Directors at least once a year.

(II) Describe any losses incurred due to major cyber security incidents, potential impacts, and countermeasures in the most recent year and up to the publication date of this Annual Report. If the amount cannot be reasonably estimated, please specify the fact that it cannot be reasonably estimated: None.

Explanation of the reasons for changes in financial ratios in the most recent two years: (for changes exceeding 20%)

1. Change in Interest earned ratio: The increase in ratio was due to the decrease in loss before tax for the current year compared to the previous year.
2. Inventory turnover ratio: The increase in ratio was due to the increase in operating costs in the current period.
3. Return on total assets, return on equity, ratio of pre-tax income to paid-in capital, net profit margin and earnings per share: The increase in ratio was due to the decrease in the net attributable to shareholders of the parent company.
4. Cash flow ratio: Mainly due to the increase in net cash inflow from operating activities during the period.
5. Cash flow adequacy ratio: Mainly due to the increase in net cash inflow from operating activities and the increase in capital expenditures for the past five years.
6. Cash reinvestment ratio: Mainly due to the increase in the net cash inflow from operating activities and the increase in investment ratio in the current period.
7. Financial leverage: Mainly due to the decrease in operating loss for the current year compared to the previous year.

Note 2: The formulas for financial ratio analysis are as follows:

1. Financial structure
   (1) Debt ratio = Total liabilities/Total assets.
   (2) Ratio of long-term capital to property, plant and equipment = (Total equity + Non-current liabilities)/Net property, plant and equipment.
2. Solvency
   (1) Current ratio = Current assets/Current liabilities.
   (2) Quick ratio = (Current assets - Inventory - Prepaid expenses)/Current liabilities.
   (3) Interest earned ratio = Net income before tax and interest expense/Interest expenses in this period.
3. Operating performance
   (1) Accounts receivable turnover (including accounts receivable and notes receivable from operating activities) = Net sales/Balance of average accounts receivable in each period (including accounts receivable and notes receivable from operating activities).
   (2) Average collection period (days) = 365/Accounts receivable turnover.
   (3) Inventory turnover = Cost of sales/Average inventory.
   (4) Payables turnover (including accounts payable and notes payable from operating activities) = Cost of sales/Balance of average accounts payable in each period (including accounts payable and notes payable from operating activities).
   (5) Average days in sales = 365/Inventory turnover.
   (6) Property, plant and equipment turnover = Net sales/Average net property, plant, and equipment.
   (7) Total asset turnover = Net sales/Average total assets.
4. Profitability
   (1) Return on assets = [Profit or loss after tax + Interest expenses × (1 - Tax rate)]/Average total assets.
   (2) Return on equity = Profit or loss after tax/Average total equity.
   (3) Profit margin = Profit or loss after tax/Net sales.
   (4) Earnings per share = (Income or loss attributable to owners of parent company - Preference shares dividends)/Weighted average number of shares issued. (Note 3)
5. Cash flows
   (1) Cash flow ratio = Net cash flows from operating activities/Current liabilities.
   (2) Cash flow adequacy ratio = Net cash flow from operating activities for the most recent five years/(Capital expenditures + Inventory increment + Cash dividends) for the most recent five years.
   (3) Cash reinvestment ratio = (Net cash flow from operating activities - Cash dividends)/ (Gross property, plant and equipment + Long-term investment + Other non-current assets + Working capital). (Note 4)
6. Leverage:
   (1) Operating leverage = (Net operating revenue - Variable operating costs and expenses)/Operating income (Note 5).
   (2) Financial leverage = Operating income/(Operating income - Interest expenses).

Note 3: The formula for calculating earnings per share above shall take into account of the following items upon measuring:

1. Based on the weighted average number of ordinary shares, rather than the number of shares issued at the end of the year.
2. Where there is a capital increase by cash or treasury stock trading, the weighted average number of shares shall be calculated during the period of circulation.
3. Where there is a surplus to capital increase or capital surplus to capital increase, the calculation of the earnings per share for the previous year and half year should be adjusted by the proportion of capital increase, rather than the period the capital increase is issued.
4. If the preferred shares are non-convertible accumulative shares, its annual dividend (whether or not it is issued) shall be deductible from the net profit after tax or increased to net loss after tax. If the preferred shares are non-cumulative, in the case of having a net profit after tax, the preferred dividend should be deducted from the net profit after tax; in the case of net loss after tax, no adjustments are required.

Note 4: Special attention should be paid to the following when analyzing cash flows:

1. Net cash flow from operating activities refers to the net cash inflow from operating activities in the cash flow statement.
2. Capital expenditure refers to the annual cash outflow of capital flows.
3. The increase in inventories shall only be calculated when the balance at the end of the period is greater than the balance at the beginning of the period. If the inventory is reduced at the end of the year, then the inventory amount should be calculated at zero.

4. Cash dividends include cash dividends for common stock and special shares.
5. Fixed assets means the total amount of property , plant and equipment before deducting accumulated depreciation.

Note 5: The issuer shall distinguish between the operating costs and operating expenses being fixed or variable. When involved in the estimation or subjective judgments, one should pay attention to its rationality and consistency.

Note 6: If the Company's shares are on par or not in the denomination of NT$10, the calculation of the ratio of the paid-in capital shall be calculated based on the equity ratio of the balance sheet attributable to the owners of the parent company

Seven. Financial Position and Financial Performance Review Analysis and Risk Management

I. Comparative analysis of financial positions

Main reasons for any material change in the company's assets, liabilities, or equity during the past 2 fiscal years, and describe the effect thereof. Where the effect is of material significance, the annual report shall describe the measures to be taken in response:

Unit: NT$ thousand

Year / Items	2022	2021	Difference
			Amount	%
Current asset	989,931	1,038,369	(48,438)	(4.66)
Property, plant and equipment	619,840	611,704	8,136	1.33
Intangible assets	93,238	85,414	7,824	9.16
Other assets	3,194,006	3,157,381	36,625	1.16
Current liabilities	1,245,310	1,173,691	71,619	6.10
Non-current liabilities	2,921,133	2,951,508	(30,375)	(1.03)
Total liabilities	4,166,443	4,125,199	117,164	2.84
Equity attributable to owners of parent company	715,328	763,735	(48,407)	(6.34)
Share Capital	900,000	900,000	0	0
Additional paid-in capital	199,838	199,748	90	0.05
Retained earnings	(288,308)	(240,080)	(48,228)	(20.09)

Total equity	730,572	767,669	(37,097)	(4.83)

Explanations for changes exceeding 20%:

1、 The increase in retained earnings compared to the previous period was mainly due to the increase in the recognition of changes in ownership interests in subsidiaries for the current year.

2、 2. The increase in non-controlling equity compared to the previous period was mainly due to the increase in the recognition of changes in ownership interests in subsidiaries for the current year.

II. Financial performance

(I) Comparative analysis of financial performance

1. Main reasons for any material change in operating revenues, operating income, or income before tax during the past 2 fiscal years

Unit: NT$ thousand

Item	2022	2021	Increase/decrease in amount	%
Net operating revenue	1,106,827	778,055	328,772	42.26
Operating Costs	(686,247)	(523,187)	(163,060)	(31.17)
Gross Profit	420,580	254,868	165,712	65.02
Operating Expense	(427,141)	(397,591)	(29,550)	(7.43)
Net operating loss	(6,561)	(142,723)	136,162	95.40
Non-operating income and expenses	(28,772)	(13,081)	(15,691)	(119.95)
Net income (loss) from continuing operations	(35,333)	(155,804)	120,471	77.32
Income Tax Expense	(1,585)	-	(1,585)	100
Net income (loss) of continuing operations in this period	(36,918)	(155,804)	118,886	76.30
Gains on discontinued operations		-	-	-
Current net loss	(36,918)	(155,804)	118,886	76.30

Explanations for changes exceeding 20%:

1. Increase in net operating revenue and gross profit from operations, and decrease in net operating loss: Mainly due to the closure of business in 2021 in line with the government's pandemic prevention policy. This did not occur in 2022.
2. Decrease in non-operating income and net expenditure: Mainly due to receiving government subsidies in 2021.
3. As a resulting of the above, the net loss before tax of the continuing business units, the net loss of the continuing business units and the net loss the continuing business units for the period decreased.

(II) Estimated sales volume and basis:

The tourism industry has been hit hard due to the rapid spread of COVID-19 worldwide. The Company will seek stable development in Taiwan by leveraging on the operating experience and resources in sports and leisure and family entertainment. We also plan to add new types of equipment and services to satisfy the needs of consumers. In addition to continuing to strengthen the competitiveness of the industry, the Company has been actively involved in the development of urban renewal and old and dangerous buildings to create stable revenue and to achieve a stable revenue and profit target. Based on this, the Company's overall sales in 2023 are expected to show growth compared to 2022. For the relevant market research and analysis and the current status and development of the industry, please refer to Two. Operational overview.

(III) Possible impact on the future financial business of the Company and measures to be taken in response

With the business philosophy of "department store operation, sports and leisure, construction and development", the Company actively rectifies its business units and integrates group resources. At the same time, the Company owns Taroko Square, Taroko Sports,Taroko Sports, Karting, Yukids-Island, Bowling, ROLLER186, and Formosa Stone Spa. In addition, we will continue to strengthen the competitiveness of our own brands while seeking and developing new business models and businesses: We plan to add a skatepark in Taipei Arena and a multi-sport stadium in Kaohsiung in 2023.

					Investment plan	Financial plan
544,824	367,415	417,813	(1,218)	493,208	-	-

1. Analysis of changes in cash flows for the year

(1) Operating activities: The net cash inflow from operating activities for the whole year was NT$367,415 thousand. This was mainly due to pre-tax losses from operations and adjustments for items that do not affect cash flows, such as depreciation expense and impairment losses.

(2) Investing activities: The net cash outflow from investing activities for the year was NT$259,419 thousand, mainly due to the increase in the investment under equity method acquired in the current year.

(3) Financing activities: The net cash outflow from financing activities for the year was NT$158,394 thousand, mainly due to the increase in rent payment on lease liabilities.

2. Remedial measures for cash deficits and liquidity analysis: Not applicable.

(II) Corrective measures to be taken in response to illiquidity: Not applicable, as it did not occur.

(III) Liquidity analysis for the coming year:

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT TRANSLATED FROM CHINESE

PWCR22000255

To the Board of Directors and Shareholders of TRK Corporation

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying consolidated balance sheets of TRK Corporation and its subsidiaries (the "Group") as of December 31, 2022 and 2021, and the related consolidated statements of comprehensive income, of changes in equity,and of cash flows for the years then ended, and the notes to the consolidated financial statements, including a summary of significant accounting policies.

In our opinion, based on our audits and the reports of other auditors, please refer to the Other matter section of our report, the accompanying consolidated financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the consolidated financial position of the Group as of December 31, 2022 and 2021, and its consolidated financial performance and its consolidated cash flows for the years then ended, in accordance with the Regulations Governing the Preparation of Financial Reports by Securities Issuers and the International Financial Reporting Standards, International Accounting Standards, IFRIC Interpretations, and SIC Interpretations that came into effect as endorsed by the Financial Supervisory Commission.

Basis for opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with the Regulations Governing Auditing and Attestation of Financial Statements by Certified Public Accountants and Standards on Auditing of the Republic of China. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditors' responsibilities for the audit of the consolidated financial statements section of our report. We are independent of the Group in accordance with the Norm of Professional Ethics for Certified Public Accountant of the Republic of China, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements. Based on our audits and the report of other auditors, we believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Key audit matters

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the Group's 2022 consolidated financial statements. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the consolidated financial statements as a whole and, in forming our opinion thereon, we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters.

Key audit matters for the Group's 2022 consolidated financial statements are stated as follows:

The completeness and accuracy of tenant-counter sales in department stores

Description

Please refer to Note 4(26) to the consolidated financial statements for accounting policies on revenue recognition and Note 6(23) for details of operating revenue.

Tenant-counter sales arises mainly through the establishment of merchandise and supplier master file data (such as merchandise master file, counter supplier master file data establishment, rent commission rate, etc.). Merchandise items, quantities, selling prices and total sales amount (only proprietary products) from every transaction are automatically transferred from the counters' point of sale (POS) to the Enterprise resource planning system (ERP). The counter can only key in the amount in POS and upload the sales information to the POS back-end system after the closing at the current date, and the information would be transferred to the Enterprise resource planning system (ERP). The entries of the tenant-counter sales are automatically generated after the responsible person checking the daily closing report and confirming them on the system; the counter's cost of goods sold is automatically transferred based on the commission rate in counter contract after the reconciliation with the counter at the end of every month. The tenant-counter sales and the counters' net cost of goods sold are listed under operating revenue at the end of every month. Every counter shall prepare daily cash reports and deposit daily cash into the bank.

Given that each transaction amount from tenant-counter sales is small but in a high volume, and the sales information is highly dependent on the transfer and calculation between systems, the above process of system summarising and the recognition of the operating revenue are important to ensure the accuracy of the tenant-counter sales. Therefore, the completeness and accuracy of tenant-counter sales stores is identified as a key audit matter.

How our audit addressed the matter

We performed the following audit procedures in respect of the above key audit matter:

1. Sampled and examined the additions or movements in the supplier master file data to ensure that they were approved appropriately.
2. Sampled and examined the approved additions or movements on the supplier master file data to ensure they were key in correctly into the master file data.
3. The sales information in POS system was regularly and completely transferred to the ERP system and generated operating revenue entry.
4. Sampled and examined the daily closing reports and the relevant evidence of the counters.
5. Sampled and examined the counters' cash deposit recognized in the daily closing reports to ensure it was in agreement with those amounts in the bank.

6. Recalculated the accuracy of the sales cost of the counter that is automatically transferred according to the commission rate in the counter contract based on the selected samples after the reconciliation with the counters at the end of each month.
7. Sampled and examined the tenant-counter sales and the counters' cost of goods sold, net are listed under operating revenue at the end of every period.

Non-financial assets-impairment assessment of goodwill and intangible assets with indefinite useful life

Description

Please refer to Note 4(19) for accounting policies on goodwill and intangible assets with indefinite useful life and its impairment and Notes 5(2) and 6(11) for details of goodwill and intangible assets with indefinite useful life.

The Group estimates recoverable amount of goodwill's and intangible assets with indefinite useful life's cash generating unit was based on the appraisal report to determine whether goodwill and intangible assets with indefinite useful life are impaired. As a result of the estimate of future cash flows involving management's judgement and a high degree of uncertainty, there would be a significant effect on the estimated outcome of the valuation. Therefore, the impairment valuation of goodwill and intangible assets with indefinite useful life is identified as a key audit matters.

How our audit addressed the matter

We performed the following audit procedures in respect of the above key audit matter:

1. Reviewed the main financial information used in estimating future cash flows and the relevant information on the financial budget which was approved by the management, including operating revenue, operating cost and operating expenses. Compared the financial budgets prepared in prior year with the actual financial performance in current year to assess the accuracy of the predictions in current year. Discussed the reasons for material differences with the management and whether they had been included in the preparation of the current financial budget.
2. The key assumptions used in estimating expected future cash flows, including the growth rate, profit rate and discount rate of operating revenue, were compared with the comparable companies in the same industry and external market data to check whether those key assumptions fall within the range adopted in the same industry.

3. Applied the appraisal report prepared by management's expert as one of the audit evidence and performed the following audit procedures:
   (1) Evaluated the proficiency, competence and objectivity of the expert.
   (2) Reviewed the appraisal range and the timing of the assessment of the expert's report to check the correlation with the audits.
   (3) For the work of the management's expert, we evaluated the parameters, assumptions and methods to check the reasonableness of the valuation.

Other matter – Reference to the audits of other auditors

We did not audit the financial statements of certain investments accounted for under the equity method which were audited by other auditors. Therefore, our opinion expressed herein, insofar as it relates to the amounts included in respect of these associates, is based solely on the reports of the other auditors. The balance of these investments accounted for under the equity method amounted to NT$157,321 thousand, constituting 3.21% of the consolidated total assets as of December 31, 2022, and the comprehensive loss recognized from associates and joint ventures accounted for under the equity method amounted to NT$1,777 thousand, constituting 4.78% of the consolidated total comprehensive loss for the year then ended.

Other matter – Parent company only financial reports

We have audited and expressed an unqualified opinion with Other matter section on the parent company only financial statements of TRK Corporation as of and for the years ended December 31, 2022 and 2021.

Responsibilities of management and those charged with governance for the consolidated financial statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the consolidated financial statements in accordance with the Regulations Governing the Preparation of Financial Reports by Securities Issuers and the International Financial Reporting Standards, International Accounting Standards, IFRIC Interpretations, and SIC Interpretations that came into effect as endorsed by the Financial Supervisory Commission, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the Group's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Group or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Those charged with governance, including the audit committee, are responsible for overseeing the financial reporting process of the Group.

Auditors' responsibilities for the audit of the consolidated financial statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditors' report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but it is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with the Standards on Auditing of the Republic of China will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these consolidated financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with the Standards on Auditing of the Republic of China, we exercise professional judgment and professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

1. Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
2. Obtain an understanding of internal controls relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Group's internal controls.
3. Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
4. Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Group's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditors' report to the related disclosures in the consolidated financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditors' report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Group to cease to continue as a going concern.
5. Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the consolidated financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the consolidated financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

6. Obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business activities within the Group to express an opinion on the consolidated financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the group audit. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditors' report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

The above standards and interpretations have no significant impact to the Group's financial condition and financial performance based on the Group's assessment.

4. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The principal accounting policies applied in the preparation of these consolidated financial statements are set out below. These policies have been consistently applied to all the periods presented, unless otherwise stated.

(1) Compliance statement

The consolidated financial statements of the Group have been prepared in accordance with the "Regulations Governing the Preparation of Financial Reports by Securities Issuers", International Financial Reporting Standards, International Accounting Standards, IFRIC Interpretations, and SIC Interpretations that came into effect as endorsed by the FSC (collectively referred herein as the "IFRSs").

(2) Basis of preparation

A. Except for the following items, the consolidated financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention:

(a) Financial assets and financial liabilities (including derivative instruments) at fair value through profit or loss.

(b) Financial assets at fair value through other comprehensive income.

B. The preparation of financial statements in conformity with IFRSs requires the use of certain critical accounting estimates. It also requires management to exercise its judgement in the process of applying the Group's accounting policies. The areas involving a higher degree of judgement or complexity, or areas where assumptions and estimates are significant to the consolidated financial statements are disclosed in Note 5.

(3) Basis of consolidation

A. Basis for preparation of consolidated financial statements:

(a) All subsidiaries are included in the Group's consolidated financial statements. Subsidiaries are all entities (including structured entities) controlled by the Group. The Group controls an entity when the Group is exposed, or has rights, to variable returns from its involvement with the entity and has the ability to affect those returns through its power over the entity. Consolidation of subsidiaries begins from the date the Group obtains control of the subsidiaries and ceases when the Group loses control of the subsidiaries.

(b) Inter-company transactions, balances and unrealised gains or losses on transactions between companies within the Group are eliminated. Accounting policies of subsidiaries have been adjusted where necessary to ensure consistency with the policies adopted by the Group.

(c) Profit or loss and each component of other comprehensive income are attributed to the owners of the parent and to the non-controlling interests. Total comprehensive income is attributed to the owners of the parent and to the non-controlling interests even if this results in the non-controlling interests having a deficit balance.

(d) Changes in a parent's ownership interest in a subsidiary that do not result in the parent losing control of the subsidiary (transactions with non-controlling interests) are accounted for as equity transactions, i.e. transactions with owners in their capacity as owners. Any difference between the amount by which the non-controlling interests are adjusted and the fair value of the consideration paid or received is recognized directly in equity.

(e) When the Group loses control of a subsidiary, the Group remeasures any investment retained in the former subsidiary at its fair value. That fair value is regarded as the fair value on initial recognition of a financial asset or the cost on initial recognition of the associate or joint venture. Any difference between fair value and carrying amount is recognized in profit or loss. All amounts previously recognized in other comprehensive income in relation to the subsidiary are reclassified to profit or loss on the same basis as would be required if the related assets or liabilities were disposed of. That is, when the Group loses control of a subsidiary, all gains or losses previously recognized in other comprehensive income in relation to the subsidiary should be reclassified from equity to profit or loss, if such gains or losses would be reclassified to profit or loss when the related assets or liabilities are disposed of.

B. Subsidiaries included in the consolidated financial statements:

Name of investor	Name of subsidiary	Main business activities	Ownership (%) December 31, 2022	Ownership (%) December 31, 2021	Description

C. Subsidiaries not included in the consolidated financial statements: None.

D. Adjustments for subsidiaries with different balance sheet dates: None.

E. Significant restrictions: None.

F. Subsidiaries that have non-controlling interests that are material to the Group: None.

(4) Foreign currency translation

Items included in the financial statements of each of the Group's entities are measured using the currency of the primary economic environment in which the entity operates (the "functional currency"). The consolidated financial statements are presented in New Taiwan Dollars, which is the Company's functional and the Group's presentation currency.

A. Foreign currency transactions and balances

(a) Foreign currency transactions are translated into the functional currency using the exchange rates prevailing at the dates of the transactions or valuation where items are remeasured. Foreign exchange gains and losses resulting from the settlement of such transactions are recognized in profit or loss in the period in which they arise.

(b) Monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies at the period end are re-translated at the exchange rates prevailing at the balance sheet date. Exchange differences arising upon re-translation at the balance sheet date are recognized in profit or loss.

(c) Non-monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies held at fair value through profit or loss are re-translated at the exchange rates prevailing at the balance sheet date; their translation differences are recognized in profit or loss. Non-monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies held at fair value through other comprehensive income are re-translated at the exchange rates prevailing at the balance sheet date; their translation differences are recognized in other comprehensive income. However, non-monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies that are not measured at fair value are translated using the historical exchange rates at the dates of the initial transactions.

(d) All foreign exchange gains and losses are presented in the statement of comprehensive income within 'other gains and losses'.

B. Translation of foreign operations

(a) The operating results and financial position of all the group entities, associates and joint arrangements that have a functional currency different from the presentation currency are translated into the presentation currency as follows:

i. Assets and liabilities presented in each balance sheet are translated at closing exchange rate at the date of that balance sheet;

ii. Income and expenses for each statement of comprehensive income are translated at average exchange rates of that period; and

iii. All resulting exchange differences are recognized in other comprehensive income.

(b) When the foreign operation partially disposed of or sold, exchange differences that were recorded in other comprehensive income are proportionately reclassified to profit or loss as part of the gain or loss on sale.

(5) Classification of current and non-current items

The Consolidated Company is engaged in the contract construction of buildings or plants sales business and the business of contract construction. The operating cycle is usually longer than one year. The classification criteria for current or non-current of assets and liabilities is based on the operating cycle. The classification criteria for current or non-current of other items are as follows:

A. Assets that meet one of the following criteria are classified as current assets:

(a) Assets arising from operating activities that are expected to be realised, or are intended to be sold or consumed within the normal operating cycle;

(b) Assets held mainly for trading purposes;

(c) Assets that are expected to be realised within twelve months from the balance sheet date;

(d) Cash and cash equivalents, excluding restricted cash and cash equivalents and those that are to be exchanged or used to settle liabilities more than twelve months after the balance sheet date.

All assets that do not meet the above criteria are classified as non-current assets.

B. Liabilities that meet one of the following criteria are classified as current liabilities:

(a) Liabilities that are expected to be settled within the normal operating cycle;

(b) Liabilities arising mainly from trading activities;

(c) Liabilities that are to be settled within twelve months from the balance sheet date;

(d) Liabilities for which the repayment date cannot be extended unconditionally to more than twelve months after the balance sheet date. Terms of a liability that could, at the option of the counterparty, result in its settlement by the issue of equity instruments do not affect its classification.

All liabilities that do not meet the above criteria are classified as non-current liabilities.

(6) Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss

A. Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss are financial assets that are not measured at amortised cost or fair value through other comprehensive income.

B. On a regular way purchase or sale basis, financial assets at fair value through profit or loss are recognized and derecognized using trade date accounting.

C. At initial recognition, the Group measures the financial assets at fair value and recognizes the transaction costs in profit or loss. The Group subsequently measures the financial assets at fair value, and recognizes the gain or loss in profit or loss.

D. The Group recognizes the dividend income when the right to receive payment is established, future economic benefits associated with the dividend will flow to the Group and the amount of the dividend can be measured reliably.

(7) Financial assets at fair value through other comprehensive income

A. Financial assets at fair value through other comprehensive income comprise equity securities which are not held for trading, and for which the Group has made an irrevocable election at initial recognition to recognize changes in fair value in other comprehensive income and debt instruments which meet all of the following criteria:

(a) The objective of the Group's business model is achieved both by collecting contractual cash flows and selling financial assets; and

(b) The assets' contractual cash flows represent solely payments of principal and interest.

B. On a regular way purchase or sale basis, financial assets at fair value through other comprehensive income are recognized and derecognized using trade date accounting.

C. At initial recognition, the Group measures the financial assets at fair value plus transaction costs. The Group subsequently measures the financial assets at fair value:

(a) The changes in fair value of equity investments that were recognized in other comprehensive income are reclassified to retained earnings and are not reclassified to profit or loss following the derecognition of the investment. Dividends are recognized as revenue when the right to receive payment is established, future economic benefits associated with the dividend will flow to the Group and the amount of the dividend can be measured reliably.

(b) Except for the recognition of impairment loss, interest income and gain or loss on foreign exchange which are recognized in profit or loss, the changes in fair value of debt instruments are taken through other comprehensive income. When the financial asset is derecognized, the cumulative gain or loss previously recognized in other comprehensive income is reclassified from equity to profit or loss.

(8) Financial assets at amortised cost

A. Financial assets at amortised cost are those that meet all of the following criteria:

(a) The objective of the Group's business model is achieved by collecting contractual cash flows.

(b) The financial assets' contractual cash flows represent solely payments of principal and interest.

B. On a regular way purchase or sale basis, financial assets at amortised cost are recognized and derecognized using trade date accounting.

C. At initial recognition, the Group measures the financial assets at fair value plus transaction costs. Interest income from these financial assets is included in finance income using the effective interest method. A gain or loss is recognized in profit or loss when the asset is derecognized or impaired.

D. The Group's time deposits which do not fall under cash equivalents are those with a short maturity period and are measured at initial investment amount as the effect of discounting is immaterial.

(9) Accounts and notes receivable

A. Accounts and notes receivable entitle the Group a legal right to receive consideration in exchange for transferred goods or rendered services.

B. The short-term accounts and notes receivable without bearing interest are subsequently measured at initial invoice amount as the effect of discounting is immaterial.

(10) Impairment of financial assets

For financial assets at amortised cost, at each reporting date, the Group recognizes the impairment provision for 12 months expected credit losses if there has not been a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition or recognizes the impairment provision for the lifetime expected credit losses (ECLs) if such credit risk has increased since initial recognition after taking into consideration all reasonable and verifiable information that includes forecasts. On the other hand, for accounts receivable or contract assets that do not contain a significant financing component, the Group recognizes the impairment provision for lifetime ECLs.

(11) Derecognition of financial assets

The Group derecognizes a financial asset when the contractual rights to receive the cash flows from the financial asset have expired.

(12) Leasing arrangements (lessor) － operating leases

Lease income from an operating lease (net of any incentives given to the lessee) is recognized in profit or loss on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

(13) Inventories

A. Including land held for construction, construction in progress and buildings and land held for sale are recorded at acquisition costs. The construction income or loss are recognized based on the completed-contract method. Land held for construction is transferred as construction in progress when they are actively developed. During the period from the beginning of active development or construction to its completion, the interests are capitalised.

B. Inventories are stated at the lower of cost and net realisable value. Cost is determined using the moving average method. The item by item approach is used in applying the lower of cost and net realisable value. Net realisable value is the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business, less the applicable variable selling expenses.

(14) Investments accounted for using equity method / associates

A. Associates are all entities over which the Group has significant influence but not control. In general, it is presumed that the investor has significant influence, if an investor holds, directly or indirectly 20 percent or more of the voting power of the investee. Investments in associates are accounted for using the equity method and are initially recognized at cost.

B. The Group's share of its associates' post-acquisition profits or losses is recognized in profit or loss, and its share of post-acquisition movements in other comprehensive income is recognized in other comprehensive income. When the Group's share of losses in an associate equals or exceeds its interest in the associate, including any other unsecured receivables, the Group does not recognize further losses, unless it has incurred legal or constructive obligations or made payments on behalf of the associate.

C. When changes in an associate's equity do not arise from profit or loss or other comprehensive income of the associate and such changes do not affect the Group's ownership percentage of the associate, the Group recognizes change in ownership interests in the associate in "capital surplus" in proportion to its ownership.

D. Unrealised gains on transactions between the Group and its associates are eliminated to the extent of the Group's interest in the associates. Unrealised losses are also eliminated unless the transaction provides evidence of an impairment of the asset transferred. Accounting policies of associates have been adjusted where necessary to ensure consistency with the policies adopted by the Group.

E. When the Group disposes its investment in an associate and loses significant influence over this associate, the amounts previously recognized in other comprehensive income in relation to the associate, are reclassified to profit or loss, on the same basis as would be required if the relevant assets or liabilities were disposed of. If it retains significant influence over this associate, the amounts previously recognized in other comprehensive income in relation to the associate are reclassified to profit or loss proportionately in accordance with the aforementioned approach.

(15) Property, plant and equipment

A. Property, plant and equipment are initially recorded at cost. Borrowing costs incurred during the construction period are capitalised.

B. Subsequent costs are included in the asset's carrying amount or recognized as a separate asset, as appropriate, only when it is probable that future economic benefits associated with the item will flow to the Group and the cost of the item can be measured reliably. The carrying amount of the replaced part is derecognized. All other repairs and maintenance are charged to profit or loss during the financial period in which they are incurred.

C. Land is not depreciated. Other property, plant and equipment apply cost model and are depreciated using the straight-line method to allocate their cost over their estimated useful lives. Each part of an item of property, plant, and equipment with a cost that is significant in relation to the total cost of the item must be depreciated separately.

D. The assets' residual values, useful lives and depreciation methods are reviewed, and adjusted if appropriate, at each balance sheet date. If expectations for the assets' residual values and useful lives differ from previous estimates or the patterns of consumption of the assets' future economic benefits embodied in the assets have changed significantly, any change is accounted for as a change in estimate under IAS 8, "Accounting Policies, Changes in Accounting Estimates and Errors", from the date of the change. The estimated useful lives of property, plant and equipment are as follows:

Buildings and structures	10	~	50	years
Machinery and equipment	2	~	10	years
Transportation equipment	1	~	5	years
Office equipment	1	~	18	years
Other equipment	3	~	12	years
Leasehold improvements	2	~	15	years

(16) Leasing arrangements (lessee)－right-of-use assets/ lease liabilities

A. Leases are recognized as a right-of-use asset and a corresponding lease liability at the date at which the leased asset is available for use by the Group. For short-term leases or leases of low-value assets, lease payments are recognized as an expense on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

B. Lease liabilities include the net present value of the remaining lease payments at the commencement date, discounted using the incremental borrowing interest rate. Lease payments are comprised of the following:

(a) Fixed payments, less any lease incentives receivable;

(b) Variable lease payments that depend on an index or a rate;

(c) Amounts expected to be payable by the lessee under residual value guarantees.

The Group subsequently measures the lease liability at amortised cost using the interest method and recognizes interest expense over the lease term. The lease liability is remeasured and the amount of remeasurement is recognized as an adjustment to the right-of-use asset when there are changes in the lease term or lease payments and such changes do not arise from contract modifications.

C. At the commencement date, the right-of-use asset is stated at cost comprising the following:

(a) The amount of the initial measurement of lease liability;

(b) Any lease payments made at or before the commencement date;

(c) Any initial direct costs incurred by the lessee.

The right-of-use asset is measured subsequently using the cost model and is depreciated from the commencement date to the earlier of the end of the asset's useful life or the end of the lease term. When the lease liability is remeasured, the amount of remeasurement is recognized as an adjustment to the right-of-use asset.

D. For lease modifications that decrease the scope of the lease, the lessee shall decrease the carrying amount of the right-of-use asset and remeasure the lease liability to reflect the partial or full termination of the lease, and recognize the difference in profit or loss.

(17) Investment property

The investment properties held by the Group, with an intention to obtain long-term rental profit. An investment property is stated initially at its cost and measured subsequently using the cost model.

(18) Intangible assets

A. Trademark right (indefinite useful life)

Trademark right with indefinite useful life is recognized at fair value at the acquisition date and regarded as having an indefinite useful life as it was assessed to generate continuous net cash inflow in the foreseeable future. Trademark right with indefinite useful life is not amortised, but is tested annually for impairment.

B. Separately acquired computer software is stated at historical cost. Computer software acquired in a business combination is recognized at fair value at the acquisition date and amortised on a straight-line basis over its estimated useful life of 1 to 3 years.

C. Membership list acquired in a business combination is recognized at fair value at the acquisition date. Membership list is amortised on a straight-line basis over its estimated useful life of 3.5 years.

D. Goodwill arises in a business combination accounted for by applying the acquisition method.

E. Other intangible assets are mainly intellectual property rights and franchise fees and amortised on a straight-line basis over its estimated useful life of 3 to 5 years.

(19) Impairment of non-financial assets

A. The Group assesses at each balance sheet date the recoverable amounts of those assets where there is an indication that they are impaired. An impairment loss is recognized for the amount by which the asset's carrying amount exceeds its recoverable amount. The recoverable amount is the higher of an asset's fair value less costs to sell or value in use. Except for goodwill, when the circumstances or reasons for recognizing impairment loss for an asset in prior years no longer exist or diminish, the impairment loss is reversed. The increased carrying amount due to reversal should not be more than what the depreciated or amortised historical cost would have been if the impairment had not been recognized.

B. The recoverable amounts of goodwill and intangible assets with an indefinite useful life are evaluated periodically. An impairment loss is recognized for the amount by which the asset's carrying amount exceeds its recoverable amount. Impairment loss of goodwill previously recognized in profit or loss shall not be reversed in the following years.

C. For the purpose of impairment testing, goodwill acquired in a business combination is allocated to each of the cash-generating units, or groups of cash-generating units, that is/are expected to benefit from the synergies of the business combination.Each unit or group of units to which the goodwill is allocated represents the lowest level within the entity at which the goodwill is monitored for internal management purposes. Goodwill is monitored at the operating segment level.

(20) Borrowings

Borrowings comprise long-term and short-term bank borrowings and other long-term and short-term loans. Borrowings are recognized initially at fair value, net of transaction costs incurred. Borrowings are subsequently stated at amortised cost; any difference between the proceeds (net of transaction costs) and the redemption value is recognized in profit or loss over the period of the borrowings using the effective interest method.

(21) Accounts and notes payable

A. Accounts payable are liabilities for purchases of raw materials and goods and notes payable are those resulting from operating and non-operating activities.

B. The short-term notes and accounts payable without bearing interest are subsequently measured at initial invoice amount as the effect of discounting is immaterial.

(22) Derecognition of financial liabilities

A financial liability is derecognized when the obligation specified in the contract is either discharged or cancelled or expires.

(23) Employee benefits

A. Short-term employee benefits

Short-term employee benefits are measured at the undiscounted amount of the benefits expected to be paid in respect of service rendered by employees in a period and should be recognized as expense in that period when the employees render service.

B. Pensions

Defined contribution plans

For defined contribution plans, the contributions are recognized as pension expense when they are due on an accrual basis. Prepaid contributions are recognized as an asset to the extent of a cash refund or a reduction in the future payments.

C. Termination benefits

Termination benefits are employee benefits provided in exchange for the termination of employment as a result from either the Group's decision to terminate an employee's employment before the normal retirement date, or an employee's decision to accept an offer of redundancy benefits in exchange for the termination of employment. The Group recognizes expense as it can no longer withdraw an offer of termination benefits or it recognizes relating restructuring costs, whichever is earlier. Benefits that are expected to be due more than 12 months after balance sheet date shall be discounted to their present value.

D. Employees' compensation and directors' and supervisors' remuneration

Employees' compensation and directors' and supervisors' remuneration are recognized as expense and liability, provided that such recognition is required under legal or constructive obligation and those amounts can be reliably estimated. Any difference between the resolved amounts and the subsequently actual distributed amounts resolved by the shareholders is accounted for as changes in estimates.

(24) Income tax

A. The tax expense for the period comprises current and deferred tax. Tax is recognized in profit or loss, except to the extent that it relates to items recognized in other comprehensive income or items recognized directly in equity, in which cases the tax is recognized in other comprehensive income or equity.

B. The current income tax expense is calculated on the basis of the tax laws enacted or substantively enacted at the balance sheet date in the countries where the Company and its subsidiaries operate and generate taxable income. Management periodically evaluates positions taken in tax returns with respect to situations in accordance with applicable tax regulations. It establishes provisions where appropriate based on the amounts expected to be paid to the tax authorities. An additional tax is levied on the unappropriated retained earnings and is recorded as income tax expense in the year the stockholders resolve to retain the earnings.

C. Deferred tax is recognized, using the balance sheet liability method, on temporary differences arising between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their carrying amounts in the consolidated balance sheet. However, the deferred tax is not accounted for if it arises from initial recognition of goodwill or of an asset or liability in a transaction other than a business combination that at the time of the transaction affects neither accounting nor taxable profit or loss. Deferred tax is provided on temporary differences arising on investments in subsidiaries and associates, except where the timing of the reversal of the temporary difference is controlled by the Group and it is probable that the temporary difference will not reverse in the foreseeable future. Deferred tax is determined using tax rates (and laws) that have been enacted or substantially enacted by the balance sheet date and are expected to apply when the related deferred tax asset is realised or the deferred tax liability is settled.

D. Deferred tax assets are recognized only to the extent that it is probable that future taxable profit will be available against which the temporary differences can be utilised. At each balance sheet date, unrecognized and recognized deferred tax assets are reassessed.

E. Current income tax assets and liabilities are offset and the net amount reported in the balance sheet when there is a legally enforceable right to offset the recognized amounts and there is an intention to settle on a net basis or realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are offset on the balance sheet when the entity has the legally enforceable right to offset current tax assets against current tax liabilities and they are levied by the same taxation authority on either the same entity or different entities that intend to settle on a net basis or realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously.

(25) Share capital

A. Ordinary shares are classified as equity. Incremental costs directly attributable to the issue of new shares or stock options are shown in equity as a deduction, net of tax, from the proceeds.

B. Where the Company repurchases the Company's equity share capital that has been issued, the consideration paid, including any directly attributable incremental costs (net of income taxes) is deducted from equity attributable to the Company's equity holders. Where such shares are subsequently reissued, the difference between their book value and any consideration received, net of any directly attributable incremental transaction costs and the related income tax effects, is included in equity attributable to the Company's equity holders.

(26) Revenue recognition

A. Operating revenue from tenant-counter

Revenue is confirmed when the goods of the counters are sold. In accordance with IFRS 15 "Revenue from contracts with customers", the Group is not primarily responsible for the provision of goods or services and does not assume the inventory risk before transferring the specified goods or services to the customer or after transferring control of the goods or services to the customer and therefore its role meets the definition of an agent. As a result, the net amount of sales revenue is recognized for goods sold through the counters.

B. Sales of goods

(a) The Group primarily operates shopping malls and leisure and recreation business. Revenue from the sale of goods is recognized when the Group sells a product to the customer.

(b) The Group operates a loyalty programme where retail customers accumulate points for purchases made which entitle them to discount on future purchases. The points provide a material right to customers that they would not receive without entering into a contract. Therefore, the promise to provide points to the customer is a separate performance obligation. The transaction price is allocated to the product and the points on a relative stand-alone selling price basis. The stand-alone selling price per point is estimated on the basis of the discount granted when the points are redeemed and on the basis of the likelihood of redemption, based on past experience. The stand-alone selling price of the product sold is estimated on the basis of the retail price. A contract liability is recognized for the transaction price which is allocated to the points and revenue is recognized when the points are redeemed or expire.

C. Land development and resale

(a) The Group develops and sells residential properties. Revenue is recognized when control over the property has been transferred to the customer. The properties have generally no alternative use for the Group due to contractual restrictions. However, an enforceable right to payment does not arise until legal title has passed to the customer. Therefore, revenue is recognized at a point in time when the legal title has passed to the customer.

(b) The revenue is measured at an agreed upon amount under the contract. The consideration is due when legal title has been transferred. While deferred payment terms may be agreed in rare circumstances, the deferral never exceeds twelve months. The transaction price is therefore not adjusted because the contract does not include a significant financing component.

(c) Sales contract of pre-sold home contain provisions for advance sales receipts, wherein the period between advance collection and the transfer of control of goods is longer than one year. The committed price should be adjusted and recognized as interest expense if the Group considers that the individual pre-sold home contract contains a significant financing component under IFRS 15. Additionally, IFRS 15 states that the enterprise shall only consider the materiality of financing component in contract level rather than considering whether the financial funding is material in portfolio level.

D. A financing component

The Group entered into a contract with a customer. As the time interval between the transfer of committed goods or service and the payment of customer does not exceed one year, the Group does not adjust the transaction price to reflect the time value of money.

(27) Government grants

Government grants are recognized at their fair value only when there is reasonable assurance that the Group will comply with any conditions attached to the grants and the grants will be received. Government grants are recognized in profit or loss on a systematic basis over the periods in which the Group recognizes expenses for the related costs for which the grants are intended to compensate.

(28) Operating segments

Operating segments are reported in a manner consistent with the internal reporting provided to the chief operating decision - maker. The Group's chief operating decision - maker, who is responsible for allocating resources and assessing performance of the operating segments, has been identified as the Board of Directors that makes strategic decisions.

5. CRITICAL ACCOUNTING JUDGEMENTS, ESTIMATES AND KEY SOURCES OF ASSUMPTION UNCERTAINTY

The preparation of these consolidated financial statements requires management to make critical judgements in applying the Group's accounting policies and make critical assumptions and estimates concerning future events. Assumptions and estimates may differ from the actual results and are continually evaluated and adjusted based on historical experience and other factors. Such assumptions and estimates have a significant risk of causing a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities within the next financial year; and the related information is addressed below:

(1) Critical judgements in applying the Group's accounting policies

None.

(2) Critical accounting estimates and assumptions

Impairment assessment of goodwill and intangible assets with an indefinite useful life

The impairment assessment of goodwill and intangible assets with an indefinite useful life relies on the Group's subjective judgement, including identifying cash-generating units, allocating assets and liabilities as well as goodwill to related cash-generating units, and determining the recoverable amounts of related cash-generating units.

12. OTHERS

(1) Capital management

The Group's objectives when managing capital are to safeguard the Group's ability to continue as a going concern in order to provide returns for shareholders and to maintain an optimal capital structure to reduce the cost of capital. In order to maintain a healthy capital base, the Group considers operating capital needs, capital expenditures and dividend expenditures in the future to monitor the Group's capital structure through financial analysis as to fulfil capital management goals.

B. Financial risk management policies

(a) The Group's activities expose it to a variety of financial risks: market risk (including foreign exchange risk, interest rate risk and price risk), credit risk and liquidity risk.

(b) Risk management is carried out by a central treasury department (Group treasury) under policies approved by the Board of Directors. Group treasury identifies, evaluates and hedges financial risks in close co-operation with the Group's operating units. The Board provides written principles for overall risk management, as well as written policies covering specific areas and matters, such as foreign exchange risk, interest rate risk, credit risk, use of derivative financial instruments and non-derivative financial instruments, and investment of excess liquidity.

C. Significant financial risks and degrees of financial risks

(a) Market risk

Foreign exchange risk

i. The Group operates internationally and is exposed to foreign exchange risk arising from the transactions of the Company and its subsidiaries used in various functional currency, primarily with respect to the USD. Foreign exchange rate risk arises from future commercial transactions and recognized assets and liabilities.

ii. Management has set up a policy to require group companies to manage their foreign exchange risk against their functional currency.

iii. The Group's businesses involve some non-functional currency operations (the Company's and certain subsidiaries' functional currency: NTD; other certain subsidiaries' functional currency: USD). The information on assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies whose values would be materially affected by the exchange rate fluctuations is as follows:

	December 31, 2022
	Foreign currency amount (in thousands)	Exchange rate	Book value (NTD)
(Foreign currency: functional currency)
Financial assets
Monetary items
USD:NTD	$ 235	30.71	$ 7,217
RMB:NTD	826	4.41	3,646
JPY:NTD	400,123	0.23	92,989

	December 31, 2021
	Foreign currency amount (in thousands)	Exchange rate	Book value (NTD)
(Foreign currency: functional currency)
Financial assets
Monetary items
USD:NTD	$ 175	27.68	$ 4,844
RMB:NTD	859	4.34	3,728
JPY:NTD	103	0.24	25

iv. The total exchange gain (loss), including realised and unrealised, arising from significant foreign exchange variation on the monetary items held by the Group for the years ended December 31, 2022 and 2021, amounted to $5,480 and ($753), respectively.

v. Analysis of foreign currency market risk arising from significant foreign exchange variation:

	Year ended December 31, 2022
	Sensitivity analysis
	Degree of variation	Effect on profit or loss	Effect on other comprehensive income
(Foreign currency: functional currency)

JPY:NTD	1%	930	-

	Year ended December 31, 2021
	Sensitivity analysis
	Degree of variation	Effect on profit or loss	Effect on other comprehensive income
(Foreign currency: functional currency)
Financial assets
Monetary items
USD:NTD	1%	$ 48	$ -
RMB:NTD	1%	37	-
JPY:NTD	1%	-	-

Price risk

i. The Group's equity securities, which are exposed to price risk, are the held financial assets at fair value through profit or loss and financial assets at fair value through other comprehensive income. To manage its price risk arising from investments in equity securities, the Group diversifies its portfolio. Diversification of the portfolio is done in accordance with the limits set by the Group.

ii. The Group's investments in equity securities comprise shares issued by the domestic companies. The prices of equity securities would change due to the change of the future value of investee companies. If the prices of these equity securities had increased/decreased by 1% with all other variables held constant, post-tax profit for the years ended December 31, 2022 and 2021 would have increased/decreased by $707 and $801, respectively, as a result of gains/losses on equity securities classified as at fair value through profit or loss. Other components of equity would have increased/decreased by $362 and $384, respectively, as a result of other comprehensive income classified as equity investment at fair value through other comprehensive income.

Cash flow and fair value interest rate risk

i. The Group's main interest rate risk arises from long-term and short-term borrowings with variable rates, which expose the Group to cash flow interest rate risk which is partially offset by cash held at variable rates. Borrowings issued at fixed rates expose the Group to fair value interest rate risk. During the years ended December 31, 2022 and 2021, the Group's borrowings at variable rate were denominated in New Taiwan dollars.

ii. The Group's borrowings are measured at amortised cost. The borrowings are periodically contractually repriced and to that extent are also exposed to the risk of future changes in market interest rates.

iii. If the borrowing interest rate had increased/decreased by 0.25% with all other variables held constant, profit, net of tax for the years ended December 31, 2022 and 2021 would have increased/decreased by $1,423 and $1,247, respectively. The main factor is that changes in interest expense result in floating-rate borrowings.

(b) Credit risk

i. Credit risk refers to the risk of financial loss to the Group arising from default by the clients or counterparties of financial instruments on the contract obligations. The main factor is that counterparties could not repay in full the accounts receivable based on the agreed terms, and the contract cash flows stated at amortised cost.

ii. The Group manages their credit risk taking into consideration the entire group's concern. For banks and financial institutions, only independently rated parties with a minimum rating of 'A' are accepted.

iii. The Group is primarily engaged in retail of department store and shopping centre and leisure and recreation business. Accounts receivable account for a small proportion to the total assets, and the possibility of unrecoverable is remote.

iv. Based on the past collection experience, the default occurs when the contract payments are past due over 90 days.

v. For accounts receivable arising from transactions, the methods of assessing the expected credit risk of accounts receivable by the Group are as follows:

(i). Assess the expected credit loss on an individual basis if a significant default has occurred to certain customers;

(ii). The remaining receivables are grouped in accordance with the credit rating of customers. Different loss rates are applied to the different groups when estimating expected credit losses.

vi. The Group referred to the forecastability of Business Indicators DataBase in the National Development Council and Basel Committee on Banking Supervision (BCBS) to adjust historical and timely information to assess the default possibility of accounts receivable. On December 31, 2022 and 2021, the provision matrix is as follows:

	Not past due	Up to 30 days past due	31~60 days past due	61~90 days past due	Past due over 90 days	Total
December 31, 2022
Expected loss rate	0.06%	0.06%	0.06%	0.06%	49.35%
Total book value	$ 40,633	$ 8,028	$ 152	$ 9	$ 2,478	$ 51,300
Loss allowance	$ 24	$ 5	$ -	$ -	$ 1,223	$ 1,252

	Not past due	Up to 30 days past due	31~60 days past due	61~90 days past due	Past due over 90 days	Total
December 31, 2021
Expected loss rate	0.03%	0.03%	0.03%	0.03%	59.49%
Total book value	$ 39,015	$ 711	$ 371	$ 585	$ 2,883	$ 43,565
Loss allowance	$ 12	$ -	$ -	$ -	$ 1,715	$ 1,727

vii. Movements in relation to the Group applying the modified approach to provide loss allowance for accounts receivable are as follows:

	2022	2021
	Accounts receivable	Accounts receivable
At January 1	$ 1,727	$ 613
Provision for impairment	-	1,198
Reversal of impairment loss	(475)	-
Write-offs	-	(84)
At December 31	$ 1,252	$ 1,727

(c) Liquidity risk

i. Cash flow forecasting is performed in the operating entities of the Group and aggregated by Group treasury. Group treasury monitors rolling forecasts of the Group's liquidity requirements to ensure it has sufficient cash to meet operational needs while maintaining sufficient headroom on its undrawn committed borrowing facilities at all times so that the Group does not breach borrowing limits or covenants (where applicable) on any of its borrowing facilities. Such forecasting takes into consideration the Group's debt financing plans, covenant compliance, compliance with internal balance sheet ratio targets.

ii. Surplus cash held by the operating entities over and above balance required for working capital management are transferred to the Group treasury. Group treasury invests surplus cash in interest bearing current accounts, time deposits and marketable securities, choosing instruments with appropriate and sufficient liquidity to provide sufficient head-room to the Group.

iii. The Group has the following undrawn borrowing facilities:

	December 31, 2022	December 31, 2021
Floating rate
Expiring within one year	$ 7,500	$ 10,000
Expiring beyond one year	10,520	5,240
	$ 18,020	$ 15,240

iv. The table below analyses the Group's non-derivative financial liabilities and net-settled or gross-settled derivative financial liabilities into relevant maturity groupings based on the remaining period at the balance sheet date to the contractual maturity date for non-derivative financial liabilities and to the expected maturity date for derivative financial liabilities. The amounts disclosed in the table are the contractual undiscounted cash flows.

(3) Fair value information

A. The different levels that the inputs to valuation techniques are used to measure fair value of financial and non-financial instruments have been defined as follows:

Level 1: Quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities that the entity can access at the measurement date. A market is regarded as active where a market in which transactions for the asset or liability take place with sufficient frequency and volume to provide pricing information on an ongoing basis. The fair value of the Group's investment in listed stocks is included in Level 1.

Level 2: Inputs other than quoted prices included within Level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly or indirectly.

Level 3: Unobservable inputs for the asset or liability. The fair value of the Group's investment in equity investment without active market is included in Level 3.

B. Fair value information of investment property at cost is provided in Note 6(10).

C. Financial instruments not measured at fair value

Including the carrying amounts of cash and cash equivalents, notes receivable, accounts receivable, other receivables (including related parties), notes payable, accounts payable (including related parties), other payables (including related parties), short-term borrowings and long-term borrowings (including current portion) are approximate to their fair values.

D. The related information of financial and non-financial instruments measured at fair value by level on the basis of the nature, characteristics and risks of the assets and liabilities as follows:

(a) Classification according to the nature of the assets and liabilities, relevant information is as follows:

December 31, 2022	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Total
Assets
Recurring fair value measurements
Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss
Equity securities	$ 5,290	$ -	$ -	$ 5,290

December 31, 2021	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Total
Assets
Recurring fair value measurements
Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss
Equity securities	$ 19,965	$ -	$ -	$ 19,965
Agreement on movie investment	-	-	1,890	1,890
Agreement on development and building projects investment	-	-	78,240	78,240
Financial assets at fair value through other comprehensive income
Equity securities	-	38,375	-	38,375
	$ 19,965	$ 38,375	$ 80,130	$ 138,470

(b) The methods and assumptions the Group used to measure fair value are as follows:

i. The instruments the Group used market quoted prices as their fair values (that is, Level 1) are listed shares and the closing price as market quoted prices.

ii. Except for financial instruments with active markets, the fair value of other financial instruments is measured by using valuation techniques or by reference to counterparty quotes. The fair value of financial instruments measured by using valuation techniques can be referred to current fair value of instruments with similar terms and characteristics in substance, discounted cash flow method or other valuation methods, including calculated by applying model using market information available at the consolidated balance sheet date.

iii. For high-complexity financial instruments, the fair value is measured by using self-developed valuation model based on the valuation method and technique widely used within the same industry. The valuation model is normally applied to derivative financial instruments, debt instruments with embedded derivatives or securitised instruments. Certain inputs used in the valuation model are not observable at market, and the Group must make reasonable estimates based on its assumptions. The effect of unobservable inputs to the valuation of financial instruments is provided in Note 12(3).

iv. The output of valuation model is an estimated value and the valuation technique may not be able to capture all relevant factors of the Group's financial and non-financial instruments. Therefore, the estimated value derived using valuation model is adjusted accordingly with additional inputs, for example, model risk or liquidity risk and etc. In accordance with the Group's management policies and relevant control procedures relating to the valuation models used for fair value measurement, management believes adjustment to valuation is necessary in order to reasonably represent the fair value of financial and non-financial instruments at the consolidated balance sheet. The inputs and pricing information used during valuation are carefully assessed and adjusted based on current market conditions.

E. The Group takes into account adjustments for credit risks to measure the fair value of financial and non-financial instruments to reflect credit risk of the counterparty and the Group's credit quality.

F. For the years ended December 31, 2022 and 2021, there was no transfer between Level 1 and Level 2.

G. The following chart is the movement of Level 3 for the years ended December 31, 2022 and 2021:

	2022
	Movie investment	Development project investment
At January 1	$ 1,890	$ 78,240
Gains and losses recognized in profit or loss	(1,789)	4,848
Decrease in investment cost	(42)	-
At December 31	$ 59	$ 83,088

	2021
	Movie investment	Development project investment
At January 1	$ 2,882	$ 78,144
Gains and losses recognized in profit or loss	(934)	96
Decrease in investment cost	(58)	-
At December 31	$ 1,890	$ 78,240

H. For the years ended December 31, 2022 and 2021, there was no transfer into or out from Level 3.

I. Treasury segment is in charge of valuation procedures for fair value measurements being categorised within Level 3, which is to verify independent fair value of financial instruments. Such assessment is to ensure the valuation results are reasonable by applying independent information to make results close to current market conditions, confirming the resource of information is independent, reliable and in line with other resources and represented as the exercisable price, and frequently updating inputs and making any other necessary adjustments to the fair value.

J. The following is the qualitative information of significant unobservable inputs and sensitivity analysis of changes in significant unobservable inputs to valuation model used in Level 3 fair value measurement:

	Fair value at December 31, 2022	Valuation technique	Significant unobservable input	Range (weighted average)	Relationship of inputs to fair value
Non-derivative equity instrument:
Agreement on movie investment	$ 59	Discounted cash flow	Discount rate	-	The higher the discount rate, the lower the fair value
Agreement on development and building projects investment	83,088	Discounted cash flow	Discount rate	-	The higher the discount rate, the lower the fair value

	Fair value at December 31, 2021	Valuation technique	Significant unobservable input	Range (weighted average)	Relationship of inputs to fair value
Non-derivative equity instrument:
Agreement on movie investment	$ 1,890	Discounted cash flow	Discount rate	-	The higher the discount rate, the lower the fair value
Agreement on development and building projects investment	78,240	Discounted cash flow	Discount rate	-	The higher the discount rate, the lower the fair value

K. The Group has carefully assessed the valuation models and assumptions used to measure fair value. However, use of different valuation models or assumptions may result in different measurement. For financial assets and liabilities categorised within Level 3, there is no significant impact to other comprehensive income on December 31, 2022 and 2021 if the net asset value increase or decrease 1%.

(4) Other matters

For the year ended December 31, 2022, the operations of the Group were not affected by the Covid-19 pandemic and various preventive measures implemented by the government.

Taiwan government had loosened the epidemic regulations on suspended operations in July 2021. As of December 31, 2022, all operating locations of the Group maintained normal operations. For the preventive measures implemented by the government, the Company adopted the response measures as well as launched various promotions to improve each operating segment back to normal operation as soon as possible. The Group's working capital is sufficient and there is no significant impact to the Group's financial condition and financial performance for the year ended December 31, 2022 based on the assessment. Please refer to Note 4(25) for accounting policies on revenue recognition and Note 6(23) for details of operating revenue.

Tenant-counter sales arises mainly through the establishment of merchandise and supplier master file data (such as merchandise master file, counter supplier master file data establishment, rent commission rate, etc.). Merchandise items, quantities, selling prices and total sales amount (only proprietary products) from every transaction are automatically transferred from the counters' point of sale (POS) to the Enterprise resource planning system (ERP). The counter can only key in the amount in POS and upload the sales information to the POS back-end system after the closing at the current date, and the information would be transferred to the ERP. The entries of the tenant-counter sales are automatically generated after the responsible person checking the daily closing report and confirming them on the system; the counter's cost of goods sold is automatically transferred based on the commission rate in counter contract after the reconciliation with the counter at the end of every month. The tenant-counter sales and the counters' net cost of goods sold are listed under operating revenue at the end of every month. Every counter shall prepare daily cash reports and deposit daily cash into the bank.

Given that each transaction amount from tenant-counter sales is small but in a high volume, and the sales information is highly dependent on the transfer and calculation between systems, the above process of system summarising and the recognition of the operating revenue are important to ensure the accuracy of the tenant-counter sales. Therefore, the completeness and accuracy of tenant-counter sales stores is identified as a key audit matter.

How our audit addressed the matter

Our key audit procedures in respect of the above included the following:

1. Sampled and examined the additions or movements in the supplier master file data to ensure that they were approved appropriately.
2. Sampled and examined the approved additions or movements on the supplier master file data to ensure they were key in correctly into the master file data.
3. The sales information in POS system was regularly and completely transferred to the ERP system and generated operating revenue entry.
4. Sampled and examined the daily closing reports and the relevant evidence of the counters.
5. Sampled and examined the counters' cash deposit recognized in the daily closing reports to ensure that it was in agreement with those amounts in the bank.

6. Recalculated the accuracy of the sales cost of the counter that is automatically transferred according to the commission rate in the counter contract based on the selected samples after the reconciliation with the counters at the end of each month.
7. Sampled and examined the tenant-counter sales and the counters' cost of goods sold, net are listed under operating revenue at the end of every period.

Non-financial assets-impairment assessment of goodwill and intangible assets with indefinite useful life

Description

Please refer to Note 4(19) for accounting policies on goodwill and intangible assets with indefinite useful life and its impairment and Notes 5(2) and 6(11) for details of goodwill and intangible assets with indefinite useful life.

The Company estimates recoverable amount of goodwill's and intangible assets with indefinite useful life's cash generating unit was based on the appraisal report to determine whether goodwill and intangible assets with indefinite useful life are impaired. As a result of the estimate of future cash flows involving management's judgement and a high degree of uncertainty, there would be a significant effect on the estimated outcome of the valuation. Therefore, the impairment valuation of goodwill and intangible assets with indefinite useful life is identified as a key audit matters.

How our audit addressed the matter

Our key audit procedures in respect of the above included the following:

1. Reviewed the main financial information used in estimating future cash flows and the relevant information on the financial budget which was approved by the management, including operating revenue, operating cost and operating expenses. Compared the financial budgets prepared in prior year with the actual financial performance in current year to assess the accuracy of the predictions in current year. Discussed the reasons for material differences with the management and whether they had been included in the preparation of the current financial budget.
2. The key assumptions used in estimating expected future cash flows, including the growth rate, profit rate and discount rate of operating revenue, were compared with the comparable companies in the same industry and external market data to check whether those key assumptions fall within the range adopted in the same industry.

3. Applied the appraisal report prepared by management's expert as one of the audit evidence and performed the following audit procedures:

   (1) Evaluated the proficiency, competence and objectivity of the expert.

   (2) Reviewed the appraisal range and the timing of the assessment of the expert's report to check the correlation with the audits.

   (3) For the work of the management's expert, we evaluated the parameters, assumptions and methods to check the reasonableness of the valuation.

Other matter – Reference to the audits of other auditors

We did not audit the financial statements of certain investments accounted for under the equity method which were audited by other auditors. Therefore, our opinion expressed herein, insofar as it relates to the amounts included in respect of these associates, is based solely on the reports of the other auditors. The balance of these investments accounted for under the equity method amounted to NT$157,321 thousand, constituting 3.37% of the total assets as of December 31, 2022, and the comprehensive loss recognized from associates and joint ventures accounted for under the equity method amounted to NT$1,777 thousand, constituting 5.70% of the total comprehensive loss for the years then ended.

Responsibilities of management and those charged with governance for the parent company only financial statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the parent company only financial statements in accordance with the Regulations Governing the Preparation of Financial Reports by Securities Issuers, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of parent company only financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the parent company only financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the Company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Company or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Those charged with governance, including the audit committee, are responsible for overseeing the financial reporting process of the Company.

Auditors' responsibilities for the audit of the parent company only financial statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the parent company only financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditors' report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with the Standards on Auditing of the Republic of China will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these parent company only financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with the Standards on Auditing of the Republic of China, we exercise professional judgment and professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

1. Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the parent company only financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
2. Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control.
3. Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
4. Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditors' report to the related disclosures in the parent company only financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditors' report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Company to cease to continue as a going concern.
5. Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the parent company only financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the parent company only financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
6. Obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business activities within the Company to express an opinion on the parent company only financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the Company's audit. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the parent company only financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditors' report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

4. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The principal accounting policies applied in the preparation of these parent company only financial statements are set out below. These policies have been consistently applied to all the periods presented, unless otherwise stated.

(1) Compliance statement

The parent company only financial statements of the Company have been prepared in accordance with the Regulations Governing the Preparation of Financial Reports by Securities Issuers.

(2) Basis of preparation

A. Except for the following items, the parent company only financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention:

(a) Financial assets and financial liabilities (including derivative instruments) at fair value through profit or loss.

(b) Financial assets at fair value through other comprehensive income.

B. The preparation of financial statements in conformity with IFRSs requires the use of certain critical accounting estimates. It also requires management to exercise its judgement in the process of applying the Company's accounting policies. The areas involving a higher degree of judgement or complexity, or areas where assumptions and estimates are significant to the parent company only financial statements are disclosed in Note 5.

(3) Foreign currency translation

Items included in the financial statements of the Company are measured using the currency of the primary economic environment in which the Company operates (the "functional currency"). The parent company only financial statements are presented in New Taiwan dollars, which is the Company's functional currency.

A. Foreign currency transactions and balances

(a) Foreign currency transactions are translated into the functional currency using the exchange rates prevailing at the dates of the transactions or valuation where items are remeasured. Foreign exchange gains and losses resulting from the settlement of such transactions are recognized in profit or loss in the period in which they arise.

(b) Monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies at the period end are re-translated at the exchange rates prevailing at the balance sheet date. Exchange differences arising upon re-translation at the balance sheet date are recognized in profit or loss.

(c) Non-monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies held at fair value through profit or loss are re-translated at the exchange rates prevailing at the balance sheet date; their translation differences are recognized in profit or loss. Non-monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies held at fair value through other comprehensive income are re-translated at the exchange rates prevailing at the balance sheet date; their translation differences are recognized in other comprehensive income. However, non-monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies that are not measured at fair value are translated using the historical exchange rates at the dates of the initial transactions.

(d) All foreign exchange gains and losses are presented in the statement of comprehensive income within 'other gains and losses'.

B. Translation of foreign operations

(a) The operating results and financial position of all the Company entities, associates and joint arrangements that have a functional currency different from the presentation currency are translated into the presentation currency as follows:

i. Assets and liabilities presented in each balance sheet are translated at closing exchange rate at the date of that balance sheet;

ii. Income and expenses for each statement of comprehensive income are translated at average exchange rates of that period; and

iii. All resulting exchange differences are recognized in other comprehensive income.

(b) When the foreign operation partially disposed of or sold, exchange differences that were recorded in other comprehensive income are proportionately reclassified to profit or loss as part of the gain or loss on sale.

(4) Classification of current and non-current items

A. Assets that meet one of the following criteria are classified as current assets; otherwise they are classified as non-current assets:

(a) Assets arising from operating activities that are expected to be realised, or are intended to be sold or consumed within the normal operating cycle;

(b) Assets held mainly for trading purposes;

(c) Assets that are expected to be realised within twelve months from the balance sheet date;

(d) Cash and cash equivalents, excluding restricted cash and cash equivalents and those that are to be exchanged or used to settle liabilities more than twelve months after the balance sheet date.

B. Liabilities that meet one of the following criteria are classified as current liabilities; otherwise they are classified as non-current liabilities:

(a) Liabilities that are expected to be settled within the normal operating cycle;

(b) Liabilities arising mainly from trading activities;

(c) Liabilities that are to be settled within twelve months from the balance sheet date;

(d) Liabilities for which the repayment date cannot be extended unconditionally to more than twelve months after the balance sheet date. Terms of a liability that could, at the option of the counterparty, result in its settlement by the issue of equity instruments do not affect its classification.

(5) Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss

A. Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss are financial assets that are not measured at amortised cost or fair value through other comprehensive income.

B. On a regular way purchase or sale basis, financial assets at fair value through profit or loss are recognized and derecognized using trade date accounting.

C. At initial recognition, the Company measures the financial assets at fair value and recognizes the transaction costs in profit or loss. The Company subsequently measures the financial assets at fair value, and recognizes the gain or loss in profit or loss.

D. The Company recognizes the dividend income when the right to receive payment is established, future economic benefits associated with the dividend will flow to the Company and the amount of the dividend can be measured reliably.

(6) Financial assets at fair value through other comprehensive income

A. Financial assets at fair value through other comprehensive income comprise equity securities which are not held for trading, and for which the Company has made an irrevocable election at initial recognition to recognize changes in fair value in other comprehensive income and debt instruments which meet all of the following criteria:

(a) The objective of the Company's business model is achieved both by collecting contractual cash flows and selling financial assets; and

(b) The assets' contractual cash flows represent solely payments of principal and interest.

B. On a regular way purchase or sale basis, financial assets at fair value through other comprehensive income are recognized and derecognized using trade date accounting.

C. At initial recognition, the Company measures the financial assets at fair value plus transaction costs. The Company subsequently measures the financial assets at fair value:

(a) The changes in fair value of equity investments that were recognized in other comprehensive income are reclassified to retained earnings and are not reclassified to profit or loss following the derecognition of the investment. Dividends are recognized as revenue when the right to receive payment is established, future economic benefits associated with the dividend will flow to the Company and the amount of the dividend can be measured reliably.

(b) Except for the recognition of impairment loss, interest income and gain or loss on foreign exchange which are recognized in profit or loss, the changes in fair value of debt instruments are taken through other comprehensive income. When the financial asset is derecognized, the cumulative gain or loss previously recognized in other comprehensive income is reclassified from equity to profit or loss.

(7) Financial assets at amortised cost

A. Financial assets at amortised cost are those that meet all of the following criteria:

(a) The objective of the Company's business model is achieved by collecting contractual cash flows.

(b) The assets' contractual cash flows represent solely payments of principal and interest.

B. On a regular way purchase or sale basis, financial assets at amortised cost are recognized and derecognized using trade date accounting.

C. At initial recognition, the Company measures the financial assets at fair value plus transaction costs. Interest income from these financial assets is included in finance income using the effective interest method. A gain or loss is recognized in profit or loss when the asset is derecognized or impaired.

D. The Company's time deposits which do not fall under cash equivalents are those with a short maturity period and are measured at initial investment amount as the effect of discounting is immaterial.

(8) Accounts and notes receivable

A. Accounts and notes receivable entitle the Company a legal right to receive consideration in exchange for transferred goods or rendered services.

B. The short-term accounts and notes receivable without bearing interest are subsequently measured at initial invoice amount as the effect of discounting is immaterial.

(9) Impairment of financial assets

For financial assets at amortised cost, at each reporting date, the Company recognizes the impairment provision for 12 months expected credit losses if there has not been a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition or recognizes the impairment provision for the lifetime expected credit losses (ECLs) if such credit risk has increased since initial recognition after taking into consideration all reasonable and verifiable information that includes forecasts. On the other hand, for accounts receivable that do not contain a significant financing component, the Company recognizes the impairment provision for lifetime ECLs.

(10) Derecognition of financial assets

The Company derecognizes a financial asset when the contractual rights to receive the cash flows from the financial asset expire.

(11) Leasing arrangements (lessor) － operating leases

Lease income from an operating lease (net of any incentives given to the lessee) is recognized in profit or loss on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

(12) Inventories

A. Including land held for construction, construction in progress and buildings and land held for sale are recorded at acquisition costs. The construction income or loss are recognized based on the completed-contract method. Land held for construction is transferred as construction in progress when they are actively developed. During the period from the beginning of active development or construction to its completion, the interests are capitalised.

B. Inventories are stated at the lower of cost and net realisable value. Cost is determined using the moving average method. The item by item approach is used in applying the lower of cost and net realisable value. Net realisable value is the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business, less the applicable variable selling expenses.

(13) Investments accounted for using equity method-subsidiaries and associates

A. Subsidiaries are all entities controlled by the Company. The Company controls an entity when the Company is exposed, or has rights, to variable returns from its involvement with the entity and has the ability to affect those returns through its power over the entity.

B. Unrealized gains or losses resulting from inter-company transactions with subsidiaries are eliminated. Necessary adjustments are made to the accounting policies of subsidiaries, to be consistent with the accounting policies of the Company.

C. The Company's share of its subsidiaries' post-acquisition profits or losses is recognized in profit or loss, and its share of post-acquisition movements in other comprehensive income is recognized in other comprehensive income. When the Company's share of losses in a subsidiary equals or exceeds its interest in the subsidiary, the Company continues to recognize its share in the subsidiary's loss proportionately.

D. Changes in a parent's ownership interest in a subsidiary that do not result in the parent losing control of the subsidiary (transactions with non-controlling interests) are accounted for as equity transactions, i.e. transactions with owners in their capacity as owner. Any difference between the amount by which the non-controlling interests are adjusted and the fair value of the consideration paid or received is recognized directly in equity.

E. When the Company loses control of a subsidiary, the Company remeasures any investment retained in the former subsidiary at its fair value. That fair value is regarded as the fair value on initial recognition of a financial asset or the cost on initial recognition of the associate or joint venture. Any difference between fair value and carrying amount is recognized in profit or loss. All amounts previously recognized in other comprehensive income in relation to the subsidiary are reclassified to profit or loss on the same basis as would be required if the related assets or liabilities were disposed of. That is, when the Company loses control of a subsidiary, all gains or losses previously recognized in other comprehensive income in relation to the subsidiary should be reclassified from equity to profit or loss, if such gains or losses would be reclassified to profit or loss when the related assets or liabilities are disposed of.

F. Associates are all entities over which the Company has significant influence but not control. In general, it is presumed that the investor has significant influence, if an investor holds, directly or indirectly 20 percent or more of the voting power of the investee. Investments in associates are accounted for using the equity method and are initially recognized at cost.

G. The Company's share of its associates' post-acquisition profits or losses is recognized in profit or loss, and its share of post-acquisition movements in other comprehensive income is recognized in other comprehensive income. When the Company's share of losses in an associate equals or exceeds its interest in the associate, including any other unsecured receivables, the Company does not recognize further losses, unless it has incurred legal or constructive obligations or made payments on behalf of the associate.

H. When changes in an associate's equity do not arise from profit or loss or other comprehensive income of the associate and such changes do not affect the Company's ownership percentage of the associate, the Company recognizes the Company's share of change in equity of the associate in 'capital surplus' in proportion to its ownership.

I. Unrealised gains on transactions between the Company and its associates are eliminated to the extent of the Company's interest in the associates. Unrealized losses are also eliminated unless the transaction provides evidence of an impairment of the asset transferred. Accounting policies of associates have been adjusted where necessary to ensure consistency with the policies adopted by the Company.

J. In the case that an associate issues new shares and the Company does not subscribe or acquire new shares proportionately, which results in a change in the Company's ownership percentage of the associate but maintains significant influence on the associate, then 'capital surplus' and 'investments accounted for using equity method' shall be adjusted for the increase or decrease of equity interest. If the above condition causes a decrease in the Company's ownership percentage of the associate, in addition to the above adjustment, the amounts previously recognized in other comprehensive income in relation to the associate are reclassified to profit or loss proportionately on the same basis as would be required if the relevant assets or liabilities were disposed of.

K. When the Company disposes its investment in an associate and loses significant influence over this associate, the amounts previously recognised as capital surplus in relation to the associate are transferred to profit or loss. If it retains significant influence over this associate, the amounts previously recognised as capital surplus in relation to the associate are transferred to profit or loss proportionately.

L. According to Rules Governing the Preparation of Financial Statements by Securities Issuers, profit for the year and other comprehensive income for the year reported in the parent company only financial statements, shall be equal to profit for the year and other comprehensive income attributable to owners of the parent reported in the consolidated financial statements, equity reported in the parent company only financial statements shall be equal to equity attributable to owners of parent reported in the consolidated financial statements.

(14) Property, plant and equipment

A. Property, plant and equipment are initially recorded at cost. Borrowing costs incurred during the construction period are capitalised.

B. Subsequent costs are included in the asset's carrying amount or recognized as a separate asset, as appropriate, only when it is probable that future economic benefits associated with the item will flow to the Company and the cost of the item can be measured reliably. The carrying amount of the replaced part is derecognized. All other repairs and maintenance are charged to profit or loss during the financial period in which they are incurred.

C. Land is not depreciated. Other property, plant and equipment apply cost model and are depreciated using the straight-line method to allocate their cost over their estimated useful lives. Each part of an item of property, plant, and equipment with a cost that is significant in relation to the total cost of the item must be depreciated separately.

D. The assets' residual values, useful lives and depreciation methods are reviewed, and adjusted if appropriate, at each balance sheet date. If expectations for the assets' residual values and useful lives differ from previous estimates or the patterns of consumption of the assets' future economic benefits embodied in the assets have changed significantly, any change is accounted for as a change in estimate under IAS 8, 'Accounting Policies, Changes in Accounting Estimates and Errors', from the date of the change. The estimated useful lives of property, plant and equipment are as follows:

Buildings and structures	10 years
Machinery and equipment	3 ~ 10 years
Transportation equipment	1 ~ 5 years
Office equipment	1 ~ 18 years
Other equipment	3 ~ 12 years
Leasehold improvements	2 ~ 15 years

(15) Leasing arrangements (lessee)－right-of-use assets/ lease liabilities

A. Leases are recognized as a right-of-use asset and a corresponding lease liability at the date at which the leased asset is available for use by the Company. For short-term leases or leases of low-value assets, lease payments are recognized as an expense on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

B. Lease liabilities include the net present value of the remaining lease payments at the commencement date, discounted using the incremental borrowing interest rate. Lease payments are comprised of the following:

(a) Fixed payments, less any lease incentives receivable;

(b) Variable lease payments that depend on an index or a rate;

(c) Amounts expected to be payable by the lessee under residual value guarantees.

The Company subsequently measures the lease liability at amortised cost using the interest method and recognizes interest expense over the lease term. The lease liability is remeasured and the amount of remeasurement is recognized as an adjustment to the right-of-use asset when there are changes in the lease term or lease payments and such changes do not arise from contract modifications.

C. At the commencement date, the right-of-use asset is stated at cost comprising the following:

(a) The amount of the initial measurement of lease liability;

(b) Any lease payments made at or before the commencement date;

(c) Any initial direct costs incurred by the lessee.

The right-of-use asset is measured subsequently using the cost model and is depreciated from the commencement date to the earlier of the end of the asset's useful life or the end of the lease term. When the lease liability is remeasured, the amount of remeasurement is recognized as an adjustment to the right-of-use asset.

D. For lease modifications that decrease the scope of the lease, the lessee shall decrease the carrying amount of the right-of-use asset and remeasure the lease liability to reflect the partial or full termination of the lease, and recognize the difference in profit or loss.

(16) Investment property

The investment properties held by the Company, with an intention to obtain long-term rental profit. An investment property is stated initially at its cost and measured subsequently using the cost model.

(17) Intangible assets

A. Trademark right (indefinite useful life)

Trademark right with indefinite useful life is recognized at fair value at the acquisition date and regarded as having an indefinite useful life as it was assessed to generate continuous net cash inflow in the foreseeable future. Trademark right with indefinite useful life is not amortised, but is tested annually for impairment.

B. Separately acquired computer software is stated at historical cost. Computer software acquired in a business combination is recognized at fair value at the acquisition date and amortised on a straight-line basis over its estimated useful life of 3 to 3.5 years.

C. Membership list acquired in a business combination is recognized at fair value at the acquisition date. Membership list is amortised on a straight-line basis over its estimated useful life of 3.5 years.

D. Goodwill arises in a business combination accounted for by applying the acquisition method.

E. Other intangible assets are mainly intellectual property rights and franchise fees and amortised on a straight-line basis over its estimated useful life of 3 to 5 years.

(18) Impairment of non-financial assets

A. The Company assesses at each balance sheet date the recoverable amounts of those assets where there is an indication that they are impaired. An impairment loss is recognized for the amount by which the asset's carrying amount exceeds its recoverable amount. The recoverable amount is the higher of an asset's fair value less costs to sell or value in use. Except for goodwill, when the circumstances or reasons for recognizing impairment loss for an asset in prior years no longer exist or diminish, the impairment loss is reversed. The increased carrying amount due to reversal should not be more than what the depreciated or amortised historical cost would have been if the impairment had not been recognized.

B. The recoverable amounts of goodwill and intangible assets with an indefinite useful life are evaluated periodically. An impairment loss is recognized for the amount by which the asset's carrying amount exceeds its recoverable amount. Impairment loss of goodwill previously recognized in profit or loss shall not be reversed in the following years.

C. For the purpose of impairment testing, goodwill acquired in a business combination is allocated to each of the cash-generating units, or groups of cash-generating units, that is/are expected to benefit from the synergies of the business combination. Each unit or group of units to which the goodwill is allocated represents the lowest level within the entity at which the goodwill is monitored for internal management purposes. Goodwill is monitored at the operating segment level.

(19) Borrowings

Borrowings comprise long-term and short-term bank borrowings and other long-term. Borrowings are recognized initially at fair value, net of transaction costs incurred. Borrowings are subsequently stated at amortised cost; any difference between the proceeds (net of transaction costs) and the redemption value is recognized in profit or loss over the period of the borrowings using the effective interest method.

(20) Accounts and notes payable

A. Accounts payable are liabilities for purchases of raw materials and goods or services and notes payable are those resulting from operating and non-operating activities.

B. The short-term notes and accounts payable without bearing interest are subsequently measured at initial invoice amount as the effect of discounting is immaterial.

(21) Employee benefits

A. Short-term employee benefits

Short-term employee benefits are measured at the undiscounted amount of the benefits expected to be paid in respect of service rendered by employees in a period and should be recognized as expense in that period when the employees render service.

B. Pensions

Defined contribution plans

For defined contribution plans, the contributions are recognized as pension expense when they are due on an accrual basis. Prepaid contributions are recognized as an asset to the extent of a cash refund or a reduction in the future payments.

C. Termination benefits

Termination benefits are employee benefits provided in exchange for the termination of employment as a result from either the Company's decision to terminate an employee's employment before the normal retirement date, or an employee's decision to accept an offer of redundancy benefits in exchange for the termination of employment. The Company recognizes expense as it can no longer withdraw an offer of termination benefits or it recognizes relating restructuring costs, whichever is earlier. Benefits that are expected to be due more than 12 months after balance sheet date shall be discounted to their present value.

D. Employees' compensation and directors' and supervisors' remuneration

Employees' compensation and directors' and supervisors' remuneration are recognized as expense and liability, provided that such recognition is required under legal or constructive obligation and those amounts can be reliably estimated. Any difference between the resolved amounts and the subsequently actual distributed amounts resolved by the shareholders is accounted for as changes in estimates.

(22) Employee share-based payment

For the equity-settled share-based payment arrangements, the employee services received are measured at the fair value of the equity instruments granted at the grant date, and are recognised as compensation cost over the vesting period, with a corresponding adjustment to equity. The fair value of the equity instruments granted shall reflect the impact of market vesting conditions. Compensation cost is recognised based on the number of equity instruments that eventually vest.

(23) Income tax

A. The tax expense for the period comprises current and deferred tax. Tax is recognized in profit or loss, except to the extent that it relates to items recognized in other comprehensive income or items recognized directly in equity, in which cases the tax is recognized in other comprehensive income or equity.

B. The current income tax expense is calculated on the basis of the tax laws enacted or substantively enacted at the balance sheet date in the countries where the Company operates and generates taxable income. Management periodically evaluates positions taken in tax returns with respect to situations in accordance with applicable tax regulations. It establishes provisions where appropriate based on the amounts expected to be paid to the tax authorities. An additional tax is levied on the unappropriated retained earnings and is recorded as income tax expense in the year the stockholders resolve to retain the earnings.

C. Deferred tax is recognized, using the balance sheet liability method, on temporary differences arising between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their carrying amounts in the parent company only balance sheet. However, the deferred tax is not accounted for if it arises from initial recognition of goodwill or of an asset or liability in a transaction other than a business combination that at the time of the transaction affects neither accounting nor taxable profit or loss. Deferred tax is provided on temporary differences arising on investments in subsidiaries and associates, except where the timing of the reversal of the temporary difference is controlled by the Company and it is probable that the temporary difference will not reverse in the foreseeable future. Deferred tax is determined using tax rates (and laws) that have been enacted or substantially enacted by the balance sheet date and are expected to apply when the related deferred tax asset is realised or the deferred tax liability is settled.

D. Deferred tax assets are recognized only to the extent that it is probable that future taxable profit will be available against which the temporary differences can be utilised. At each balance sheet date, unrecognized and recognized deferred tax assets are reassessed.

E. Current income tax assets and liabilities are offset and the net amount reported in the balance sheet when there is a legally enforceable right to offset the recognized amounts and there is an intention to settle on a net basis or realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are offset on the balance sheet when the entity has the legally enforceable right to offset current tax assets against current tax liabilities and they are levied by the same taxation authority on either the same entity or different entities that intend to settle on a net basis or realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously.

(24) Share capital

A. Ordinary shares are classified as equity. Incremental costs directly attributable to the issue of new shares or stock options are shown in equity as a deduction, net of tax, from the proceeds.

B. Where the Company repurchases the Company's equity share capital that has been issued, the consideration paid, including any directly attributable incremental costs (net of income taxes) is deducted from equity attributable to the Company's equity holders. Where such shares are subsequently reissued, the difference between their book value and any consideration received, net of any directly attributable incremental transaction costs and the related income tax effects, is included in equity attributable to the Company's equity holders.

(25) Revenue recognition

A. Operating revenue from tenant-counter

Revenue is confirmed when the goods of the counters are sold. In accordance with IFRS 15 'Revenue from contracts with customers', the Company is not primarily responsible for the provision of goods or services and does not assume the inventory risk before transferring the specified goods or services to the customer or after transferring control of the goods or services to the customer and therefore its role meets the definition of an agent. As a result, the net amount of sales revenue is recognized for goods sold through the counters.

B. Sales of goods

(a) The Company primarily operates shopping malls and leisure and recreation business. Revenue from the sale of goods is recognized when the Company sells a product to the customer.

(b) The Company operates a loyalty programme where retail customers accumulate points for purchases made which entitle them to discount on future purchases. The points provide a material right to customers that they would not receive without entering into a contract. Therefore, the promise to provide points to the customer is a separate performance obligation. The transaction price is allocated to the product and the points on a relative stand-alone selling price basis. The stand-alone selling price per point is estimated on the basis of the discount granted when the points are redeemed and on the basis of the likelihood of redemption, based on past experience. The stand-alone selling price of the product sold is estimated on the basis of the retail price. A contract liability is recognized for the transaction price which is allocated to the points and revenue is recognized when the points are redeemed or expire.

C. Revenue from licensing intellectual property

The Company entered into a contract of licensing intellectual property with a customer. The contract requires a usage-based/sales-based royalty in exchange for a licence of intellectual property. The Company recognises revenue when the performance obligation has been satisfied and the subsequent usage occurs.

D. Service revenue

Revenue from providing services related to the building plan for opening venue and the operation of shopping mall is recognised in the accounting period in which the services are rendered.

E. A financing component

The Company entered into a contract with a customer. As the time interval between the transfer of committed goods or service and the payment of customer does not exceed one year, the Company does not adjust the transaction price to reflect the time value of money.

(26) Government grants

Government grants are recognized at their fair value only when there is reasonable assurance that the Company will comply with any conditions attached to the grants and the grants will be received. Government grants are recognized in profit or loss on a systematic basis over the periods in which the Company recognizes expenses for the related costs for which the grants are intended to compensate.

5. CRITICAL ACCOUNTING JUDGEMENTS, ESTIMATES AND KEY SOURCES OF ASSUMPTION UNCERTAINTY

The preparation of these parent company only financial statements requires management to make critical judgements in applying the Company's accounting policies and make critical assumptions and estimates concerning future events. Assumptions and estimates may differ from the actual results and are continually evaluated and adjusted based on historical experience and other factors. Such assumptions and estimates have a significant risk of causing a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities within the next financial year; and the related information is addressed below:

(1) Critical judgements in applying the Company's accounting policies

None.

(2) Critical accounting estimates and assumptions

Impairment assessment of goodwill and intangible assets with an indefinite useful life

The impairment assessment of goodwill and intangible assets with an indefinite useful life relies on the Company's subjective judgement, including identifying cash-generating units, allocating assets and liabilities as well as goodwill to related cash-generating units, and determining the recoverable amounts of related cash-generating units.

6. DETAILS OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTS

(1) Cash and cash equivalents

	December 31, 2022	December 31, 2021
Cash on hand and revolving funds	$ 13,672	$ 16,804
Checking accounts and demand deposits	423,642	435,105
	$ 437,314	$ 451,909

A. The Company transacts with a variety of financial institutions all with high credit quality to disperse credit risk, so it expects that the probability of counterparty default is remote.

B. The Company's cash and cash equivalents pledged to others as collateral for long-term and short-term borrowings, trust accounts, leases of buildings and performance guarantee had been transferred to other current assets and other non-current assets. Refer to Notes 6(9)(12) and 8 for details.

(20) Capital surplus

Pursuant to the R.O.C. Company Act, capital surplus arising from paid-in capital in excess of par value on issuance of common stocks and donations can be used to cover accumulated deficit or to issue new stocks or cash to shareholders in proportion to their share ownership, provided that the Company has no accumulated deficit. Further, the R.O.C. Securities and Exchange Act requires that the amount of capital surplus to be capitalised mentioned above should not exceed 10% of the paid-in capital each year. Capital surplus should not be used to cover accumulated deficit unless the legal reserve is insufficient.

(21) Accumulated deficits to be covered

A. Under the Company's Articles of Incorporation, the current year's earnings, if any, shall first be used to pay all taxes and offset prior years' operating losses. Then, 10% of the remaining amount shall be set aside as legal reserve and special reserve shall be set aside or reversed in accordance with operations or related laws.

B. The Company's dividend distribution is subject to the current year's earnings and adopts a stable dividend strategy. The Company takes future capital budget into consideration to measure future capital needs. After financing the capital needs with retained earnings, the remainder, if any, shall be appropriated as cash dividends.

C. Except for covering accumulated deficit or issuing new stocks or cash to shareholders in proportion to their share ownership, the legal reserve shall not be used for any other purpose. The use of legal reserve for the issuance of stocks or cash to shareholders in proportion to their share ownership is permitted, provided that the distribution of the reserve is limited to the portion in excess of 25% of the Company's paid-in capital.

D. (a) In accordance with the regulations, the Company shall set aside special reserve from the debit balance on other equity items at the balance sheet date before distributing earnings. When debit balance on other equity items is reversed subsequently, the reversed amount could be included in the distributable earnings.

(b) The amounts previously set aside by the Company as special reserve on initial application of IFRSs in accordance with Order No. Financial-Supervisory-Securities-Corporate-1010012865, dated April 6, 2012, shall be reversed proportionately when the relevant assets are used, disposed of or reclassified subsequently. Such amounts are reversed upon disposal or reclassified if the assets are investment property of land, and reversed over the use period if the assets are investment property other than land.

E. The Company had accumulated deficits in the years of 2022 and 2021 as resolved by the Company's shareholders on March 23, 2023 and March 21, 2022, respectively, and thus had no earnings for distribution.

B. Financial risk management policies

(a) The Company's activities expose it to a variety of financial risks: market risk (including foreign exchange risk, interest rate risk and price risk), credit risk and liquidity risk.

(b) Risk management is carried out by a central treasury department (Company treasury) under policies approved by the Board of Directors. Company treasury identifies, evaluates and hedges financial risks in close co-operation with the Company's operating units. The Board provides written principles for overall risk management, as well as written policies covering specific areas and matters, such as foreign exchange risk, interest rate risk, credit risk, use of derivative financial instruments and non-derivative financial instruments, and investment of excess liquidity.

C. Significant financial risks and degrees of financial risks

(a) Market risk

Foreign exchange risk

i. The Company operates internationally and is exposed to foreign exchange risk arising from the transactions of the Company and its subsidiaries used in various functional currency, primarily with respect to the USD. Foreign exchange rate risk arises from future commercial transactions and recognized assets and liabilities.

ii. Management has set up a policy to require Company companies to manage their foreign exchange risk against their functional currency.

iii. The Company's businesses involve some non-functional currency operations (the Company's functional currency is New Taiwan dollars, NTD). The information on assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies whose values would be materially affected by the exchange rate fluctuations is as follows:

	December 31, 2022
	Foreign currency amount (in thousands)	Exchange rate	Book value (NTD)
(Foreign currency: functional currency)
Financial assets
Monetary items
USD:NTD	$ 1	30.71	$ 31
RMB:NTD	36	4.41	159
JPY:NTD	400,027	0.2324	92,961
Non-monetary items
USD:NTD	$ 179	30.71	$ 5,493
HKD:NTD	1,307	3.94	5,146

	December 31, 2021
	Foreign currency amount (in thousands)	Exchange rate	Book value (NTD)
(Foreign currency: functional currency)

USD:NTD	$ 1	27.68	$ 28
RMB:NTD	176	4.34	764
JPY:NTD	26	0.24	6
Non-monetary items
USD:NTD	$ 160	27.68	$ 4,431
HKD:NTD	1,324	3.55	4,699

iv. The total exchange gain (loss), including realised and unrealised, arising from significant foreign exchange variation on the monetary items held by the Company for the years ended December 31, 2022 and 2021, amounted to $5,766 and ($1,062), respectively.

v. Analysis of foreign currency market risk arising from significant foreign exchange variation:

	Year ended December 31, 2022
	Sensitivity analysis
	Degree of variation	Effect on profit or loss	Effect on other comprehensive income
(Foreign currency: functional currency)

USD:NTD	1%	$ -	$ -
RMB:NTD	1%	8	-
JPY:NTD	1%	-	-

Price risk

i. The Company's equity securities, which are exposed to price risk, are the held financial assets at fair value through profit or loss and financial assets at fair value through other comprehensive income. To manage its price risk arising from investments in equity securities, the Company diversifies its portfolio. Diversification of the portfolio is done in accordance with the limits set by the Company.

ii. The Company's investments in equity securities comprise shares issued by the domestic companies. The prices of equity securities would change due to the change of the future value of investee companies. If the prices of these equity securities had increased/decreased by 1% with all other variables held constant, post-tax profit for the years ended December 31, 2022 and 2021 would have increased/decreased by $690 and $757, respectively, as a result of gains/losses on equity securities classified as at fair value through profit or loss. Other components of equity would have increased/decreased by $68 and $73, respectively, as a result of other comprehensive income classified as equity investment at fair value through other comprehensive income.

Cash flow and fair value interest rate risk

i. The Company's main interest rate risk arises from long-term and short-term borrowings with variable rates, which expose the Company to cash flow interest rate risk which is partially offset by cash held at variable rates. Borrowings issued at fixed rates expose the Company to fair value interest rate risk. During 2022 and 2021, the Company's borrowings at variable rate were denominated in New Taiwan dollars.

ii. The Company's borrowings are measured at amortised cost. The borrowings are periodically contractually repriced and to that extent are also exposed to the risk of future changes in market interest rates.

iii. If the borrowing interest rate had increased/decreased by 0.25% with all other variables held constant, profit, net of tax for the years ended December 31, 2022 and 2021 would have increased/decreased by $1,153 and $546, respectively. The main factor is that changes in interest expense result in floating-rate borrowings.

(b) Credit risk

i. Credit risk refers to the risk of financial loss to the Company arising from default by the clients or counterparties of financial instruments on the contract obligations. The main factor is that counterparties could not repay in full the accounts receivable based on the agreed terms, and the contract cash flows stated at amortised cost.

ii. The Company manages their credit risk taking into consideration the entire Company's concern. For banks and financial institutions, only independently rated parties with a minimum rating of 'A' are accepted.

iii. The Company is primarily engaged in retail of department store and shopping centre and leisure and recreation business. Accounts receivable account for a small proportion to the total assets, and the possibility of unrecoverable is remote.

iv. Based on the past collection experience, the default occurs when the contract payments are past due over 90 days.

v. For accounts receivable arising from transactions, the methods of assessing the expected credit risk of accounts receivable by the Company are as follows:

(i). Assess the expected credit loss on an individual basis if a significant default has occurred to certain customers;

(ii). The remaining receivables are grouped in accordance with the credit rating of customers. Different loss rates are applied to the different groups when estimating expected credit losses.

vi. The Company used the forecastability of Business Indicators DataBase in the National Development Council and Basel Committee on Banking Supervision (BCBS) to adjust historical and timely information to assess the default possibility of accounts receivable. On December 31, 2022 and 2021, the provision matrix is as follows:

	Not past due	Up to 30 days past due	31~60 days past due	61~90 days past due	Over 90 days past due	Total
December 31, 2022
Expected loss rate	0.06%	0.06%	0.06%	0.06%	71.92%
Total book value	$ 37,537	$ 8,028	$ 152	$ 9	$ 1,702	$ 47,428
Loss allowance	$ 23	$ 5	$ -	$ -	$ 1,224	$ 1,252

	Not past due	Up to 30 days past due	31~60 days past due	61~90 days past due	Over 90 days past due	Total
December 31, 2021
Expected loss rate	0.03%	0.03%	0.03%	0.03%	64.79%
Total book value	$ 36,171	$ 711	$ 229	$ 439	$ 2,648	$ 40,198
Loss allowance	$ 11	$ -	$ -	$ -	$ 1,716	$ 1,727

vii. Movements in relation to the Company applying the modified approach to provide loss allowance for accounts receivable are as follows:

	2022	2021
	Accounts receivable	Accounts receivable
At January 1	$ 1,727	$ 613
Provision for impairment	-	1,198
Reversal of impairment loss	(475)	-
Write-offs	-	(84)
At December 31	$ 1,252	$ 1,727

(c) Liquidity risk

i. Cash flow forecasting is performed in the operating entities of the Company and aggregated by Company treasury. Company treasury monitors rolling forecasts of the Company's liquidity requirements to ensure it has sufficient cash to meet operational needs while maintaining sufficient headroom on its undrawn committed borrowing facilities at all times so that the Company does not breach borrowing limits or covenants (where applicable) on any of its borrowing facilities. Such forecasting takes into consideration the Company's debt financing plans, covenant compliance, compliance with internal balance sheet ratio targets.

ii. Surplus cash held by the operating entities over and above balance required for working capital management are transferred to the Company treasury. Company treasury invests surplus cash in interest bearing current accounts, time deposits and marketable securities, choosing instruments with appropriate and sufficient liquidity to provide sufficient head-room to the Company.

iii. The Company has the following undrawn borrowing facilities:

	December 31, 2022	December 31, 2021
Floating rate
Expiring within one year	$ 7,500	$ 10,000
Expiring beyond one year	3,240	3,240
	$ 10,740	$ 13,240

iv. The table below analyses the Company's non-derivative financial liabilities and net-settled or gross-settled derivative financial liabilities into relevant maturity groupings based on the remaining period at the balance sheet date to the contractual maturity date for non-derivative financial liabilities and to the expected maturity date for derivative financial liabilities. The amounts disclosed in the table are the contractual undiscounted cash flows.

December 31, 2022	Within 1 year	Between 1 and 2 years	Between 2 and 5 years	Over 5 years
Non-derivative financial liabilities:
Short-term borrowings	$ 281,500	$ -	$ -	$ -

Lease liability	288,083	287,858	731,865	1,899,171

(3) Fair value information

A. The different levels that the inputs to valuation techniques are used to measure fair value of financial and non-financial instruments have been defined as follows:

Level 1: Quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities that the entity can access at the measurement date. A market is regarded as active where a market in which transactions for the asset or liability take place with sufficient frequency and volume to provide pricing information on an ongoing basis. The fair value of the Company's investment in listed stocks is included in Level 1.

Level 2: Inputs other than quoted prices included within Level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly or indirectly.

Level 3: Unobservable inputs for the asset or liability. The fair value of the Company's investment in equity investment without active market is included in Level 3.

B. Fair value information of investment property at cost is provided in Note 6(10).

C. Financial instruments not measured at fair value

Including the carrying amounts of cash and cash equivalents, accounts receivable (including related parties), accounts payable, other receivables (including related parties), other payables (including related parties), short-term borrowings and long-term borrowings (including current portion) are approximate to their fair values.

D. The related information of financial and non-financial instruments measured at fair value by level on the basis of the nature, characteristics and risks of the assets and liabilities at December 31, 2022 and 2021 are as follows:

(a) The related information of natures of the assets and liabilities is as follows:

December 31, 2022	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Total
Assets
Recurring fair value measurements
Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss
Equity securities	$ 3,094	$ -	$ -	$ 3,094
Agreement on movie investment	-	-	59	59
Agreement on development and building projects investment	-	-	83,088	83,088
Financial assets at fair value through other comprehensive income
Equity securities	-	6,767	-	6,767
	$ 3,094	$ 6,767	$ 83,147	$ 93,008

December 31, 2021	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Total
Assets
Recurring fair value measurements
Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss
Equity securities	$ 14,520	$ -	$ -	$ 14,520
Agreement on movie investment	-	-	1,890	1,890
Agreement on development and building projects investment	-	-	78,240	78,240
Financial assets at fair value through other comprehensive income
Equity securities	-	7,313	-	7,313
	$ 14,520	$ 7,313	$ 80,130	$ 101,963

(b) The methods and assumptions the Company used to measure fair value are as follows:

i. The instruments the Company used market quoted prices as their fair values (that is, Level 1) are listed shares and the closing price as market quoted prices.

ii. Except for financial instruments with active markets, the fair value of other financial instruments is measured by using valuation techniques or by reference to counterparty quotes. The fair value of financial instruments measured by using valuation techniques can be referred to current fair value of instruments with similar terms and characteristics in substance, discounted cash flow method or other valuation methods, including calculated by applying model using market information available at the parent company only balance sheet date.

iii. For high-complexity financial instruments, the fair value is measured by using self-developed valuation model based on the valuation method and technique widely used within the same industry. The valuation model is normally applied to derivative financial instruments, debt instruments with embedded derivatives or securitised instruments. Certain inputs used in the valuation model are not observable at market, and the Company must make reasonable estimates based on its assumptions. The effect of unobservable inputs to the valuation of financial instruments is provided in Note 12(3).

iv. The output of valuation model is an estimated value and the valuation technique may not be able to capture all relevant factors of the Company's financial and non-financial instruments. Therefore, the estimated value derived using valuation model is adjusted accordingly with additional inputs, for example, model risk or liquidity risk and etc. In accordance with the Company's management policies and relevant control procedures relating to the valuation models used for fair value measurement, management believes adjustment to valuation is necessary in order to reasonably represent the fair value of financial and non-financial instruments at the parent company only balance sheet. The inputs and pricing information used during valuation are carefully assessed and adjusted based on current market conditions.

E. The Company takes into account adjustments for credit risks to measure the fair value of financial and non-financial instruments to reflect credit risk of the counterparty and the Company's credit quality.

F. For the years ended December 31, 2022 and 2021, there was no transfer between Level 1 and Level 2.

G. The following chart is the movement of Level 3 for the years ended December 31, 2022 and 2021:

	2022
	Movie investment	Development project investment
At January 1	$ 1,890	$ 78,240
Gains and losses recognized in profit or loss	(1,789)	4,848
Decrease in investment cost	(42)	-
At December 31	$ 59	$ 83,088

	2021
	Movie investment	Development project investment
At January 1	$ 2,882	$ 78,144
Gains and losses recognized in profit or loss	(934)	96
Decrease in investment cost	(58)	-
At December 31	$ 1,890	$ 78,240

H. For the years ended December 31, 2022 and 2021, there was no transfer into or out from Level 3.

I. Treasury segment is in charge of valuation procedures for fair value measurements being categorised within Level 3, which is to verify independent fair value of financial instruments. Such assessment is to ensure the valuation results are reasonable by applying independent information to make results close to current market conditions, confirming the resource of information is independent, reliable and in line with other resources and represented as the exercisable price, and frequently updating inputs and making any other necessary adjustments to the fair value.

J. The following is the qualitative information of significant unobservable inputs and sensitivity analysis of changes in significant unobservable inputs to valuation model used in Level 3 fair value measurement:

	Fair value at December 31, 2022	Valuation technique	Significant unobservable input	Range (weighted average)	Relationship of inputs to fair value
Non-derivative equity instrument:
Agreement on movie investment	$ 59	Discounted cash flow	Discount rate	-	The higher the discount rate, the lower the fair value
Agreement on development and building projects investment	83,088	Discounted cash flow	Discount rate	-	The higher the discount rate, the lower the fair value

	Fair value at December 31, 2021	Valuation technique	Significant unobservable input	Range (weighted average)	Relationship of inputs to fair value
Non-derivative equity instrument:
Agreement on movie investment	$ 1,890	Discounted cash flow	Discount rate	-	The higher the discount rate, the lower the fair value
Agreement on development and building projects investment	78,240	Discounted cash flow	Discount rate	-	The higher the discount rate, the lower the fair value

K. The Company has carefully assessed the valuation models and assumptions used to measure fair value. However, use of different valuation models or assumptions may result in different measurements. If net assets value from financial assets and liabilities categorised within Level 3 had increased or decreased by 1%, net income or other comprehensive income would not have been significantly impacted for the years ended December 31, 2022 and 2021.

Lin, Man-Li	7,827,539	8.69%
Sacon International Co., Ltd.	7,202,532	8.00%

Note 1: It was derived from the data using the Company issued common shares (including treasury shares) and preference shares in dematerialised form which were registered and held by the shareholders above 5% on the last operating date of each quarter.

Note 2: If the aforementioned data contains shares which were kept in the trust by the shareholders, the data was disclosed as a separate account of the client which was set by the trustee. As for the shareholder who reports share equity as an insider whose shareholding ratio was greater than 10% in accordance with Securities and Exchange Act, the shareholding ratio included the self-owned shares and trusted shares, at the same time, persons who have power to decide how to allocate the trust assets. For the information on reported share equity of insiders, please refer to the Market Observation Post System.

Note 3: The preparation principle of this table uses the shareholders' register as of the book closure date for the shareholders' special meeting (no need buy-to-cover short sales) to calculate the distribution of the balance of each unsecured transaction.

Note 4: Ownership (%) = total shares held by the shareholder/total shares transferred in dematerialised form.

Note 5: Total shares transferred in dematerialised form (including treasury shares) amounted to 90,000,000 shares.

Note3: The Company's compensation policies (including directors, managers, supervisors and employees) are set out below:

The employees' compensation of the Company is determined by the employees and employers. Also, salary determination and adjustment and bonus distribution are differentiated according to the operating condition of the Company, price level, career contribution and ability and performance of the employee. The employees' pay level is reviewed periodically each year to ascertain it is competitive in the labor market.

According to the Articles of Incorporation of the Company, the Board of Directors is authorized to determine the remuneration of all Directors based on the degree of participation in the Company's operation and contribution, as well as comparing with industry, and is submitted to the Board of Directors for resolution after being reviewed by the remuneration committee. Managers' remuneration is determined based on personal performance and contribution to the Company's overall operation, as well as comparing with industry, and is submitted to the Board of Directors for resolution after being reviewed by the remuneration committee.

According to the Articles of Incorporation of the Company, if the Company generates profit for the year, shall be distributed as employees' compensation and directors' and supervisors' remuneration. The percentage shall be 0.5~1% for employees' compensation and no more than 2% for directors' and supervisors' remuneration. If a company has accumulated deficit, earnings should be channeled to cover losses. The distribution of employees' compensation and directors' and supervisors' remuneration shall be submitted to the shareholders' meeting.

Note4: The supervisors' remuneration for the years ended December 31, 2022 and 2021 were both $0.
